

Acknowledgement

The journey of research is endless in the human life. At the end of five years of research in the field of biocontrol, It's my great pleasure to acknowledge the people who have a contribution to my memorable journey of PhD.

First and foremost, I am with heartfelt gratitude to my research advisor Prof. Sanjay S. Ingle for permitting me to work under his supervision. Each meeting with him during the journey he added invaluable aspects to the broadened and implementation my view. He has lightened up the way in my darkest times, guided me with his invaluable suggestions, and encouraged me a lot in the academic life. From him, I have learned to select problems, to think critically to solve them and to present their solutions.

I would like to mention my deep gratitude to Prof. T. Bagchi, former Head of Department for developing excellent resources, laboratory facility, and research milieu. It was her immense effort that led to modernize the infrastructure of the department. I am equally thankful to present Head Prof. G. Archana.

My heartfelt thanks to teachers Prof. A. S. Nerurkar for scientific suggestions, Dr. Johannes Manjrekar for constructive criticism and Dr. Pranav Vyas for spiritual support. I express my deep sense of gratitude to all teachers for enlightening knowledge in me.

I am highly obliged to Late Prof. B.B. Chattoo who directed Post MSc diploma courses genetic engineering and IPR which helped me to develop skill in the area of molecular biology and IPR.

I am special thanks to Mr. Prerak Shah, Seazone Granito Pvt. Ltd., Gajera whose support in permission of land for the field study.

I am especially thankful to Dr. Zeigler, BGSC, Ohio State University, USA for providing all the necessary cry gene plasmid constructs and Bt reference strains.

It is with sincere gratitude that I wish to thanks lab seniors Dr. Ketan D. Patel and Miss Sanjukta, Dr. Priyadarshan Keluskar, Dr. Kuldeep Patel for supporting me during my difficult times, suggestions, approachable nature. I would like to address special thanks to seniors Dr. Sandip Patil, Dr. Vikas Mehera, Dr. Santoshkumar, Dr. Sohil, Dr. Harshkh Tank, Dr. Chandraprakash, Dr. Rakesh Sharma. Dr. Annap, Dr. Abhik Saha and Dr. Jagat Rathod for guidance in molecular biology techniques and constant encouragement and support. I special thanks Miss. Sneha Garge, Mr. Hasim, Mr.Akhil, Mr. Divya Purohit, for timely help and support. Discussing scientific idea and discussions with them have greatly improved my conceptual understanding.

Other persons whom I cannot forget Miss Jaswinder, Mr. Vihang, Miss. Janki Patel, , Mr. Gosai, Mr. Mihir, Miss Siddhi Vora, Miss Sweta, Miss Abhi Shah, Devanand, Juliya, Prachi, Dipexa for being so wonderful friends to me. It was always fun working with them. I thank them for all the cheers and joyful moments that we shared. Space for these people in my life will remain unfilled.

I thankful to all my students especially Yomini, Darshana, Shailesh Lad, Rakesh Yadav, Bhargav and Rajesh for sharing the burden of my research work. Their belief in me and endless help strengthen my confidence. The research was a joyful experience due to them. I specially thank them all for being with me. It would be unfair not to mention other M.Sc. students especially Sweta Rami, Sheeba, Somiya, Reshma, Prashad, who created a joyful environment during their stay.

I am grateful to the dynamic person of the dept. Mr. Shirish Nagarkar for every academic and non-academic help. Life of research scholar is smooth because of him in the dept. I am equally thankful to Mr. Talatibhai for timely issuing chemicals and books, Mrs. Seema for glasswares, Mrs. Aparna madam for cultures, Mr. Mandvekar for protocols. I sincerely thank all other members of non-teaching staff for their help and cooperation in research journey.

A special thank to Mr. Ratilal for providing insect larvae. Without him, it was impossible to finish the journey.

I am grateful my parent and brothers Brijesh and Nishnat Shah and their family who took all the responsibility of the family in my absence and provided all the financial support as well as their constant faith, and immense support made me reach this destination. It was their faith and dream to make me a potential person to serve the society. Last but not least my wife Dhara who was with me through the difficult time and given endless help without expecting any returns. I am deeply grateful to God to have her in my life.

All people made it possible for me to reach this last stage of my endeavor. Thank You from my heart-of-hearts.
