

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

If you don't go after what you want, you'll never have it. If you don't ask, the answer is always no. If you don't step forward, you're always in the same place.

-Nora Roberts

It has been a long journey. There are number of people I want to thank for their help in making this thesis come to a reality. As I look back, my mentors, teachers and friends have given their unconditional encouragement and support throughout my PhD. I would like to express my deepest gratitude & sincere regards to my supervisor Dr. Johannes Manjrekar for his guidance. He has always been there throughout my work with his careful corrections during regular meetings and discussions which ensured a more thought out approach towards problem solving. His clarity of thoughts, interpretation of the results, looking at tiny details and patience helped me to be more organised in my work.

I was fortunate to work under Prof. Bharat B. Chattoo, who gave me the freedom to explore, ask questions and at the same time guided to improve upon my work. His words, his dedication towards the lab pushed me to better my work and made me a responsible person.

I am grateful to Prof. Chattoo for his constant support and providing excellent atmosphere and facilities at Genome Research Centre where I worked for my PhD.

I would like to thank my thesis committee members, Dr. M. Nair, Prof. G. Archana and Dr. B. Chandani who have guided me through all these years.

*I thank Dr. Richard Gardner (University of Auckland, New Zealand) who kindly provided S. cerevisiae Δ alr1 Δ alr2 mutant (CM66) and the strain CM52 from which it was derived for complementation studies.*

Numerous people have helped and taught me immensely in the lab. I sincerely thank my seniors, Dr Harsukh Tank, Ms. Kaminee Ranka, Dr. Chandra Prakash, Dr. Suhail Muzaffar, Mr. Vikas Mehra, Ms. Varsha C Mohanan and Dr. Sushma Meshram, for their invaluable advice. I thank all my colleagues, Mr. Akhil Thaker, Mr. Divya Purohit, Ms. Hiral Shah, Dr. Priya S. Pillai and Dr. Shweta Panchal and my juniors Ms. Khyati Mehta and Ms. Ruchi Sharma. Special thanks to Ms. Hiral for her constructive criticism and numerous discussions which helped improve my work,

I would like to thank former and present Heads of Department, Department of Microbiology and Biotechnology Centre, Prof. T. Bagchi and Prof. G. Archana respectively for providing infrastructure facilities in the department. I would like to thank all the faculties of the department.

I thank Mr. Abhik Saha and Mr. Jagat Rathod for their friendship and life beyond the lab. Abhik has always been there as a great friend who guided throughout my stay at MSU right from my M.Sc. days till now.

I take this opportunity to thank my biology teacher at school, Ms. Sangeeta. Her way of teaching was the one which made biology interesting to me. I also thank Dr. P. Hemalatha Reddy, Principal, and Dr. Nandita Narayanasamy, Faculty of Department of Biochemistry, Sri Venkateswara College, New Delhi who developed scientific aptitude and motivated me for research in life sciences. I am deeply obliged to Dr. Yogendra Singh who introduced me to the experience of working in a research lab by allowing summer training in his lab at IGIB during my Bachelors.

Happiness and memorable moments describe wonderful friendship with Dr. Amit Shrama, Dr. Omar Warsi, Dr. Samay Pande, Dr. Sunil Shetty, Dr. Vijay Wardhan, Dr. Vishal Chaudhari, and Mr. Sahir who have always been there. I am blessed to have them in my life.

I would like to thank the non-teaching staff, Mr. J. K. Nair, Mr. S. Nagarkar, Mr. N. D. Bhatt and Mr. A. Varghese, for all the help with the paper work,

I also thank all the M.Sc. and dissertation students and trainees who worked with me and helped improve my understanding of the subject with their questions and suggestions.

I thank University Grants Commission (UGC-NET) and Department of Biotechnology (DBT) for providing the fellowship during my course of research. I also thank DBT for providing Travel grant under CTEP scheme for attending “XI International Fungal Biology Conference” held at Karlsruhe Institute of Technology (KIT), Karlsruhe, Germany.

I thank my parents who gave me freedom to choose my career and never questioned my decisions and my sisters for their encouragement and support.

Lastly, I thank Almighty for giving me the patience and perseverance to move in the right direction.
