

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The words of gratitude fall short when I try to acknowledge all those who have helped me in this journey of completing my study and writing this thesis. This study was carried out at my organization, my second home- Space Applications Centre, ISRO, Ahmedabad.

I am extremely fortunate to have Professor A.C. Sharma as my guide. He is a man of few but powerful words. He was always besides me for guidance, support and help, all throughout.

I am overwhelmed with gratitude for Dr. S.S. Ray who instilled in me the first thought of registering for Ph.D. I can never repay for his selfless support, awe-inspiring guidance and the time he spent in endless technical discussions despite his busy schedule.

I would like to express my sincere and heartfelt gratitude to Dr. K.R. Manjunath, who is a wonderful person to learn from. He was always there to provide the best of the advises-technical as well as non-technical, at the right time.

I would make a special mention of Dr. Ajai, who has always stood by me through thick and thin, no matter what comes in every aspect of my life.

I would like to pay special thanks to Shri A.S. Kiran Kumar for permitting me in all regards to take up this work and giving meaningful insights.

From the bottom of my heart, I thank Dr. Mini Raman who provided a conducive environment to me for finishing my thesis. She is such a wonderful, positive and pure person.

I would especially thank Dr. D.K. Das, Director, Space Applications Centre, ISRO, Ahmedabad and Dr. Raj Kumar, Deputy Director, Space Applications Centre, ISRO, Ahmedabad for providing me support and encouragement towards completion of this thesis.

I take this opportunity to thank my dear friend Dr. Kavita Mishra who was a pillar of help at the university and. I would also thank my friends Dr. Diggish Patel, Dr. Rojalin Tripathy, Dr. Indrani Choudhary and Ms. Mudra Dore for showering their words of encouragement whenever I needed them.

I would like to thank my seniors Dr. Prakash Chauhan, Dr. Sushma Panigrahy, Dr. Santanu Chaudhary, Dr. D.R.M. Samudariah, Dr. Saji Kuriakose, Mr. Kirti Padia as well as my peers- Dr. Tanumi Kumar, Dr. N.S.R. Krishnayya, Mr. Karish Seth, Mrs. Sunita Prajapati, Ms. Apita Sajia for directly and/or indirectly helping me out in completing this study.

I thank all the teaching as well as non-teaching staff of Department of Physics, Faculty of Science and the University staff for helping me out as and when required. I also thank my domestic staff for working beyond their working hours whenever I asked them.

I could not have registered for PhD, nor could I have arrived till this moment of thesis submission, without the untiring help, support and encouragement by my husband Shri Shailendra Singh and my children-Shauryaa and Samar. The patience, tolerance and perseverance they showed are matchless. I am indebted to them forever.

My existence is owed to my lovely parents Shri Jagdish Swaroop Bhatnagar and Smt. Asha Bhatnagar for their love and blessings that they have always showered upon me and letting me be myself. Their blessings have always helped me fight all odds. Thankyou dear parents for always respecting my decisions.

Last, but not the least, I thank my brothers Shri Ashish Swaroop Bhatnagar and Shri Saurabh Bhatnagar for constantly reminding me to wrap up my thesis.

The world is full of such nice people and I am fortunate to have a great bunch of them. Thank you all for your support which ushered me to the position I am at today. Thankyou God for all good things in my life!!
