While carrying out my research work, I have been under the care of many people. First, I sincerely express my heartfelt thanks to my guide professor Dr. Sunjay Jain who has given me theoretical and practical guidelines for my research work from the beginning to the end. And my sincere thanks to all the staff member of the Department of Museology, particularly Dr. N. R. Shah and Mr. Kirit Rahavar for their help and encouragement.

I am very much indebted to many Indian Government officers, especially, of the Department of Culture and Education, Shastribhavan, New Delhi. They provided necessary information to me whenever I approached them. Thanks.

My sincere thanks to all the members of staff of the IGRMS who extended their help and co-operation during my visits. In particular, I am grateful to Prof. K. K Basa (Director of IGRMS), Dr. A.K. Tiwari, Mr. Vikas Bhatt, Mr. S.K. Rawat, Dr. Rakesh Nayal, Dr. Sudipa Roy, Mr. P. Sankar Rao, Mr. Surya Kumar Pandey, Ms. Garima Anand, Mr. Arun Kiro, Mr. N. Shakhmacha Singh, Mr. Ranjit Singh and Mr. Lakhi. I also thank staff of the Administration section, Photography section, Exhibition section, and the Library. My heart felt thanks to all of them for sparing their valuable time for me, providing relevant information and also permission to take photography and to do a study of the visitors.

I thank to all the staff of member of the NFMK who extended their help and co-operation during my research. In particular, I am thankful to Mr. Lee Kwan-Ho, senior curator department of education NFMK, who allowed me to work for the Museum as a volunteer. This provided me an opportunity to observe and study their philosophy of education and their practices closely. It also facilitated interaction with education staff and visitors. Thanks to Ms. Koo Mun-Hoe for helping me by sending her article relevant to my study.

I am thankful to Dr. Choe, Jong-Ho who was always concerned about my research and helped me by sending relevant study material published in Korea.

And I really thank the visitors to IGRMS and NFMK who co-operated and responded to the questionnaire and the informal interview. Without their co-operation and response, it would not have been possible to study the impact of the Museums.

I express my sincere thanks to Kim Kyoung-Ae for helping me through words of encouragement and solving my personal problems like housing, food and health, and Lee Ha-Yan for preparing drawings for worksheets.

I sincerely appreciate family of my land-lord and Mr. Oza's family, who took care of me during my four year stay in Baroda for my research work. Thanks to them for their affection and the Indian food.

Finally, I sincerely express my heartfelt thanks to my family who have given me their devotion, love, and academic and financial support.
