

Acknowledgement

Degree of Doctor of Philosophy is a landmark in one's Academic career. And this effort needs the help and cooperation from many. Acknowledgment is recognizing. Words are a medium of expressing one's feelings.

I am greatly indebted to my Guide Prof. (Dr.) Syed Maswood, without whose able guidance and support, this work could have never seen the light of the day. Prof. (Dr.) Syed Maswood, is a down to earth person who is an Academician to the core. He is a Master of his subject and an extremely meticulous person who has a keen eye for perfection. Despite of his strict schedule, he always squeezed time for sorting out my difficulties. Whenever I used to get stuck up with anything and couldn't find the way ahead, the only thing I had to do was to approach him for guidance. During the research period his presence made all the difference. He was a constant source of inspiration. I must sincerely confess that it was because of the strict deadlines laid down by him; this work could be completed in time.

I am also indebted to my parents, in-laws and my brother, Ajit who patiently supported and cooperated me.

My husband, Samir, deserves special mention for giving me the most needed unquestionable time and unconditional support.

I am also indebted to my friends at the Faculty of Law, M. S. University, Baroda who provided me the healthy competitive spirit throughout.

Sincere thanks are also due to the office staff of Faculty of Law. I am also indebted to the librarian of H.M. Library as well as the Librarian of Faculty of Law for providing the relevant material and books on time.

And last but not the least I am indebted to all those because, of whom I could complete this great task in time.
