गुरुर ब्रह्मा गुरुर विष्णु गुरुर देवो महेश्वरः
गुरुः साक्षात्परब्रह्मा तस्मै श्री गुरुवे नमः

Any task cannot be fulfilled and satisfactorily completed alone. There are numerous visible and invisible hands that lend support during the journey till the finish line.

This thesis could not have been completed were it not for the unwavering guidance of my supervisor, Dr. Namrata Luhar. She never failed to push me to my limits and to always strive to make my work better. For her unstinting help, I am truly indebted.

In addition, I have benefited greatly from the help, advice and support of a number of the academics at The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, my alma mater. I would like to express my sincere gratitude to respected Prof. (Dr.) Bhavna Mehta, O.S.D, Dean, Faculty of Law, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda for the constant support and encouragement.

I cannot thank enough to Dr. Ghanshyam Solanki and Dr. Sanjay Solanki, who stirred in me the passion to pursue law after high school. I am further blessed to be motivated by Dr. Archana Gadekar to pursue my doctoral degree and the decision turned out to be the best decision. I would like to mention Dr. Deepti Acharya who helped me a lot in the initial days of my research and Prof. Adhya Saxena and Prof. Shailja Bharadwaj for their guidance and encouragement.

I got vibrant and supportive academic community that is actively fostered at my workplace, Gujarat National Law University that allowed me continue the research with liberty, for which I am thankful to Prof. Dr. Bimal Patel, Former Director, GNLU and Prof. Dr. S. Shanthakumar, Director, GNLU. I have always been supported and guided by my colleagues, in particular Dr. Deesha Khaire, who has been my guardian angel when I am far from home.

During my time as a graduate and postgraduate, I was privileged to receive the counsel of a number of esteemed professors who were truly generous with both their time and their expertise. My thesis would have been the poorer were it not for their academic generosity. A thank you must therefore go to professors Dr. Rajendra Parikh, Ms. Tarakeshwari Bulusu, Dr. Pinaky Shah and lawyers Mr. Krishna Acharya, Mr. Avdhoot Sumant, Dr. Nilesh Shah. I must thank enough Ms. Jayshree, Ms. Sweta and other members of the staff for all possible administrative support throughout my association with the Faculty of Law.

I must also thank G.V. Rao, Senior Advocate, Supreme Court of India for providing me access to the library of Indian Society of International Law, New Delhi and give his time in between hearing at the Supreme Court of India. I also extend my heartfelt gratitude to Smt. Hansa Mehta Library and our librarian Ms. Shilpa Sarvaiya at Faculty of Law.

I cannot thank enough, my family who raised me as a good human being and made me worthy of education and research. My mother Prof. Shanno Pandey has been a constant pillar of strength and a torch bearer in all my endeavours. My father Dr. Hariprasad Pandey has been a tutor in a true sense teaching me the importance of small things in life and enduring for bigger achievements. My brother Suraj has played a major role in pushing me to work hard and even cheering my spirit whenever I am low. I thank my brother Mr. Rajdev for holding me since I was little. My husband Anand, my mother-in-law and my in-laws have given me enviable love, immense strength, and unwavering support to achieve my dreams. The sacrifices of my family push me forward for which I am eternally grateful.

Finally, my extended family Mantosh Sir, Harshvardhan, Shyamsundar, Anuragi, Vaishali for providing me the love, guidance and support that helped me get this far, in all aspects of my life. I am eternally grateful to all those who have helped through out this journey. Ultimately, I thank the Almighty for bestowing upon me his constant presence in all the loving people around me.
