

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am overwhelmed and humbled and feel grateful to be able to acknowledge my depth gratitude to all those who have helped me to put these ideas, well above the level of simplicity and into something concrete. First and foremost, praises and thanks to The God, The Almighty, for showering his blessings throughout my research work to complete the research successfully.

Next comes my family, I believe that in order to achieve anything in life, the support of family is important. Without the blessings and support of my mother, Jasodaden R. Solanki and my father, Ratanlal M. Solanki, I would not have been where I am today. It is their teaching, sacrifices and ethics and principles that have helped me to enter the field of music for which I would always be indebted to them. I am grateful to my elder brother Amit R. Solanki, for his continuous love, help and support. He has been an immense help in the technical aspect of this research like editing, formatting and many other such aspects. Special thanks to my dear wife Shivani Desai Solanki, who has been my pillar of strength. She has stood by me through all my travails, my absences, my fits of pique and impatience. She gave me support and help, discussed ideas and prevented several wrong turns. I thank her whole heartedly for helping me translate this mammoth thesis, without her support and hard work it would not have been possible to conduct my research at ease.

I would like to thank my research guide Prof. Gaurang Bhavsar, for giving me the opportunity to do research and providing invaluable guidance throughout this research. His dynamics, vision, sincerity and motivation have deeply inspired me. He has constantly worked with me, pushing me to work harder and deliver my best. I am extremely grateful for all the efforts that he has put in. In fact, over the years he has been more of a friend and I would like to thank him his empathy and great sense of humor. I wanted to thank his family for their patience during the discussions I had with him on research work and thesis preparation which kept him away from his family.

I want to thank my spiritual guru Shri Shri Ravi Shankar, for imparting immense wealth of knowledge and wisdom.

I would also like to thank all my teacher for guiding, moulding and encouraging me. I am humbled and grateful. Thanking late Pt. Pushkar Shridhar, Prof. Ajay Ashtaputre, Shri C. M. Pendse and special thanks to Dr. Kedar Mukkadam sir for helping me in writing the notations, our faculty Dean Prof. Prabhakar Dabhade and Vice Dean Dr. Rajesh Kelkar for always supporting me by being my friend, philosopher, and guide in every walk of life.

It is a humbling experience to acknowledge those people who have, mostly out of kindness, helped me along the journey of my PhD. I am indebted to so many for their encouragement and support. Just to name a few, Jaydeep Lakum, Dhananjay Vekariya, Deepanshi Gupta, Priyanshu Sharma, Manas Vora, Rudra Limbachiya, Akshita Bajpai, Monali Dalvi Joshi and last but not the least my two best friends, Nilay Salvi and Gaurav Nagor.

I would like to extend my gratitude towards Shri Firoze Katila (Hon. President of Swar Sadhna Samiti), Mrs. Rupa Sethna (Secretary), Mrs. Nazneen Katila. Shri Shiroy Katila and all the members of Swar Sadhna Samiti for helping me collect data for my PhD work. I would like to thank all the authors and editors of various newspapers, magazines and journals. Thanking journalists Shri Ashfaq Kadri and Shri Girish Mudholkar for their kind support.

Lastly, I want to thank anyone whom I have forgotten to mention here and who has directly or indirectly played an instrumental role in helping me complete this thesis. Sincere apologies and forever grateful.

Thank you!

Solanki Chirag Ratanlal
