

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I express my heartfelt gratitude and thanks to my guide, Dr. S.M. Phadke, Reader, Clothing and Textiles Department, Faculty of Home Science, Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Baroda, for her stimulating guidance, constructive criticism, valuable suggestions and help throughout the course of the study. Working under her guidance has been an enriching experience, both, personally as well as professionally.

I am extremely grateful to Mr. M.K. Mahajan, Managing Director, Himachal Pradesh Handloom and Handicraft Corporation Ltd., Shimla for the keen personal interest which he took in the research and for the co-operation extended by him and the staff of the Corporation during data collection. Thanks are also due to Himachal Khadi Mandal, Himachal Khadi Ashram and various Tibetan weaving societies for their help, with a special reference to Tibetan Refugee Self Help Handicraft Society, Shimla, for weaving the carpet samples. I am very thankful to all the respondents for furnishing the information required for the study.

Thanks are also due to the authorities of Himachal Pradesh Public Works Department and Himachal Forest Department for making the boarding and lodging arrangements in their rest houses at various places in the State.

I take this opportunity to thank Dr. Manohar Singh, Officer Incharge, Central Sheep and Wool Research Institute, Arid Region Campus, Bikaner, for permitting the use of the laboratory facilities of the institute, for testing the wear characteristics of carpets. I would like to express my thanks to Mr. H.S. Batra, Technical Officer, CSWRI, Bikaner, for the assistance provided and for personally supervising the experiment.

My thanks are also due to the Clothing and Textiles Department, Faculty of Home Science, Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Baroda, for extending the facilities for the present study.

I am thankful to Punjab Agricultural University, Ludhiana, for granting study leave to work towards my doctoral degree. I greatly appreciate the encouragement given by Dr. M.B. Singh, Dean, College of Home Science, Punjab Agricultural University, Ludhiana, during the period of study. The financial assistance given by Indian Council of Agricultural Research in the form of Senior Research Fellowship is duly acknowledged.

Appreciation is also extended to Ms. Charanjit Grewal and Ms. Navreet Grewal, for having accompanied me during data collection. My special thanks are extended to little Sufi and Rahul, who inspite of their young age, were brave enough to undertake journeys through treacherous mountain treks of Himalayas.

My thanks are due to Mr. I.A. Rangwala for meticulously typing the thesis and to Ms. Vandana Chauhan for going through the proofs.

I also appreciate the help rendered by Ms. Swatantra Mann, Ms. P. Sharma and Ms. Amita Pandya.

I am deeply indebted to my family, specially to Major RVS Grewal and to my parents, Capt. S.S. Grewal and Mrs. S.P.K. Grewal, for the encouragement and the moral support given by them, without which it would not have been possible to undertake this study.
