

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This thesis would not have been possible without the support, faith & guidance of many important people in my life, I would like to express my sincerest gratitude to all those who have provided me the help to complete this research report.

I am truly indebted and thankful to my Research Guide Prof. (Dr.) Sunita Nambiyar, Faculty of Social Work, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda without her motivation it would have been impossible to complete the study. I am thankful for her valuable guidance and consistent feedback. Her valuable inputs have helped me to improve upon my work.

I express my heartfelt gratitude to Prof. (Dr.) Jagdish Solanki, Dean and Head Faculty of Social Work, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda for his support, encouragement and co-operation while I was pursuing my Ph. D at the Faculty.

A special note of thanks to the teaching Staff members at the Faculty of Social Work. They have provided useful insights and feedback to me during my research pursuit. I am thankful to Prof. (Dr.) M.N. Parmar, former Dean and now Director HPP and senior professors, Prof. (Dr.) Chhaya Patel and Prof. (Dr.) Bhavna Mehta for their support, guidance and for constant inspiration which they extended to me from time to time.

I owe my thanks to other faculty members, the administrative staff, the library staff and the other non teaching staff at the Faculty of Social Work for their help and support during my PhD programme at the Faculty.

I also thank Mrs. Sushma Parekh who helped me in analysis of data.

I also express my gratitude to Mission Mangalam Staff - DLM (District Livelihood Manager), Assistant project Manager District, TLM (Taluka Livelihood Manager) of all the seven Talukas for their kind cooperation and support.

Most importantly, I express my heartfelt gratitude to the respondents and people of the communities and the various leaders and officials who contributed their precious time with interest.

Last but not the least, this thesis would not have been completed without the support, encouragement and motivation from my entire family. A special thanks to my mother-in-law, father-in-law, my mother, father, elder sister and brother who encouraged and helped me at every stage of my personal and academic life, and longed to see this achievement come true. A special note of thanks to my spouse Hardik, for this research took his quality time and also for his encouragement and support throughout the study.
