

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to convey my special appreciation and thanks to my thesis supervisor Professor Dr. S. K. Joshi. His guidance on both research as well as on my career have been precious. On the completion of this work it is my proud opportunity to convey my deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness towards him for his expert direction, constant support and constructive discussions during entire period of my association with him. I can only offer my most humble and philosophical gratitude to him for deep concern for my academic achievement.

I would also like to thank Staff members of Electrical Engineering Department for their constant support. I would also like to thank the staff members of Applied Mathematics Department and officials of DNHPDCL, GETCO for their support and knowledge sharing. Last but not the least, I would also like to thank my family, friends, colleagues and well-wishers for continuous encouragement.
