

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Long years of experience of working in the field of education as a teacher and a counselor inspired me to do “something” for parents and students. My search for a mentor ceased when I met Prof. (Dr.) Aruna Khasgiwala, former Dean and Head and Faculty of Social Work, M S University.

This Ph.D. thesis would not have been possible without the help of so many people in so many ways. I would like to express deep gratitude towards all those who motivated, guided, encouraged and stood by me in completion of this thesis.

First and foremost, I consider it an honor to express heartfelt gratefulness to my respected guide Prof. (Dr.) Aruna Khasgiwala, for accepting me as a research scholar, guiding, inspiring and encouraging me in times of confusion and difficulties. She shaped my thoughts, made me work and at times she nurtured me like a mother... She always supported whole heartedly by all the means even at odd hours and amidst all the familial and professional commitments. My thesis would not have seen the light of the day without her bountiful support. I owe madam a huge debt of gratitude for all the care and concern showered on me during this journey. I feel the word ‘Thank You’ is a very small for you Madam!

I would like to express sincere gratitude of obligation to Prof. (Dr.) M.N. Parmar, Dean, and Faculty of Social Work for his enduring support, encouragement and cooperation in persuasion of my Ph D work at the faculty.

I am extremely thankful to Prof. Jagdish Solanki, Head, and Faculty of Social Work for his generous support and cooperation in scheduling course work seminar at faculty and a special thanks to Prof. Leena Mehta for coordinating course work schedule and assignment of field visit.

I owe my gratitude to all the teaching faculty-Prof. Chhaya Patel, Prof. Sunita Nambiyar, and Prof. Ankur Saxena for their useful insights and encouraging comments in my research pursuit. Special thanks to Prof. Bhavna Mehta for the specific suggestions for research methodology.

I owe a special gratitude to Prof. R.G. Kothari, Dean, faculty of Education and Psychology for providing constant inspiration and valued guidance throughout my journey of research not only at personal level but also as a part of the panel of experts consisting of Prof. Pushpanadham K. and Prof. Dipti Oza with their useful suggestions and feedbacks.

I am very thankful to the Director and Organizing Committee of M.S. University for Ph.D. Course Work which has enriched my knowledge and skills on research.

I am thankful to my Ph.D. colleagues Ms. Meena Chandarana, Mr. Deepak Patel specifically for helping me out in logistic managements and special appreciation to Dr. Sunita Jolly for elucidating number of confusions.

I am very appreciative of the office staff at the faculty- especially Mr. Madhukar Mahajan, Mrs. Dipti Sakharikar, Librarian Mr. Dilip Gandhi, Mr. Ankit and Ms.

Dharmishtha from Saksham and computer lab technician for their timely support in administrative procedures.

I express my gratitude to Dr P. Ilango Professor & Head, Department of Social Work, Bharathidasan University for his valuable suggestions on tools and measures.

I am highly grateful to Head of Dept. of Sociology and Coordinator of MSW Program, Prof. (Dr) Parvez A. Abassi for his constant support and cooperation during my research work.

I would be failing in my duty if I do not express thanks to my dear colleagues from various departments of Veer Narmad South Gujarat University particularly from MSW program, Economics, MHRD and Statistics; Dr. Bahadursinh Vasava, Dr. Shital Tamakuwala, Ms. Rujul for providing encouragement, Prof. Guarang Rami for providing expertise in data analysis, Ms. Neha Raval and Ms. Monika Shah for their proficiency in analysis of data and interpretations. I am thankful to Mrs. Bhakti Vashi for assisting me in precise write up.

I express thanks to Centre for Social Studies (CSS) Surat for considering me under their consultancy and Guidance Programme, special thanks to the Director Prof. Satyakam Joshi and Prof. Kiran Desai for their valuable remarks on questionnaire, the suggestions of Mr. Vimal Trivedi were particularly very useful in the coding of the questionnaire. I am appreciative of Mr. Ashish Nikam who did a major work of data entry efficiently.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to the Librarians at TISS Mumbai, Indian Institute of Education Pune, Hansa Mehta of M.S. University, Baroda, and Centre for Social Studies, Surat and Central library of V N S G University, Surat for permitting access to the library to carry out the literature review for the study.

My sincere gratitude to the Principals of various colleges and HODs of the various departments for permitting me to carry out data collection work and sparing time for the interviews.

I am very thankful to my family members for the affection, unconditional love and support during the pursuit of study. I am extremely thankful to my parents for constant support, blessings and reminding me about the time line. I am appreciative of my elder sister in law Mrs. Kirti Ashok Mistry for encouragement and showing concern. My special thanks to Harshit and Dipti for being by my side and considerate attitude when I was not able to spare time with them.

I have no words to describe the absolute support from my life partner; Mr. Nishikant who has been a great source of encouragement and empathizing in times of various emotional phases throughout the pursuit of study and life too. I feel blessed as he always stands by me as a pillar.

I owe my thanks to all my closed friends Hema, Usha, Agnes, Prabhutaben (unlimited list) and relatives for kindly considering my hectic schedules.

The most important of all, I sincerely acknowledge the young respondents of the study for sharing their views which have helped me in understanding career aspirations of youth in a broader context.

I extend my thanks to Jay Jalaram Typing and Xerox Centre, Surat for formatting and giving special effects in shaping my thesis.

I end by offering my work to the Almighty, I thank Him for the strength He bestowed upon me to complete this task and I hope that He would continue strengthening me so that I can contribute to the betterment of the society.

Vadodara

Date:

(REKHA MISTRY)