

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This study has been undertaken and completed during my tenure as a Lecturer at the M.S. Patel Institute of Management Studies, Faculty of Management Studies, M.S. University of Baroda, Vadodara.

I am thankful to Professor (Dr.) G.C. Maheshwari for being supervisor to this study. I am especially grateful to him for allowing me to work independently through out my study. I take this opportunity to thank Professor Mayank Dholakiya, Head & Dean of Faculty of Management Studies, Vadodara, for being a facilitator through out my study period and also other colleagues for their constant inspiration.

My sincere thanks to the Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad and Ratan Tata Library, New Delhi for allowing me to have an access to their library for the secondary data available therein.

I gratefully acknowledge the sincere efforts put up by the respondents to dig out information and made it available to me in a great confidence. I also owe a duty to thank those Executive Directors and Company Secretaries who apart from replying the questionnaire enlightened me on various practical aspects.

I am also thankful to Professor Shreehari and Miss Smita Trivedi, both from Department of Statistics, Faculty of Science, M.S. University of Baroda, Vadodara for their guidance and support extended for statistical analysis of data on SPSS.

Family bonds in Indian ethos, supersedes any material compensation to do a good job. I owe a duty to thank my husband Mr. Upendra Sharma, my children Mukta and Sudarshan and last but not least my parents for their moral support for the accomplishment of this study.

Vadodara

30th September, 2003.

Sunita Upendra Sharma