

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to thank many people who have helped me to study museology in India from participation in the ICOFOM Meeting & Symposium till submitting this Thesis to the M.S. University of Baroda. Since attending the ICOFOM meeting & symposium on "Museology and Developing Countries : Help or Manipulation" (16 November - 3 December, 1988 held at Hyderabad, Varanasi and New Delhi, India), I was encouraged to study Museology in India by the participants of the Meeting & Symposium, especially, Prof. Dr. V.H. Bedekar and R.T. Parikh, who were teaching Museology in the M.S. University of Baroda. Also I could meet many well-known museologists and professional museum workers who participated in the Meeting. After that, I sincerely decided to come to India to study museology. Owing to Prof. Dr. Parikh's encouragement, I have been able to study Museology in Baroda during last three and half years. While carrying out my research work, I have been under the care of many people. I greatly appreciate my guide Dr. R.T. Parikh who has given me a practical guideline for my thesis work from the beginning to the end. I sincerely offer my heartfelt gratitude to Shri P.G. Gupte (Ex-project Officer, NMNH), for suggestions to improve my thesis work. And further, my sincere thanks go to the staff of the Department of Museology, Sarva Shri Sunjay Jain, N.R. Shah, Viqar Sayed, K.H. Rahevar, M.B. Goswami, R.P. Shah (Retired Head), R.V. Ramana (Senior colleague), Swatantar Mann (Ex-teaching staff), Prakash, and Santosh who have provided me with all available departmental facilities and needful references. Especially I express my heartfelt thanks to Sarva Shri Sunjay Jain and N.R. Shah who have given me in-depth concern and needful references. Also I offer my heartfelt thanks to Shri Viqar Sayed who has helped me a number of times on various matters such as helping all needed photographic work for Illustrations of my Thesis and solving various difficulties in which myself and family faced in Baroda. Furthermore, I express my sincere thanks to Shri Ramesh Khatri (Drawingman, M.S.U.) and his assistants for forty six drawings of prehistoric stone-tools in the Saputara Museum.

My heartfelt gratitude go to the Dangis who have shown me hospitality and kindness during my fieldwork, especially, Sarva Shri R.D.
