

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

A panoramic retrospection of the comprehensive process of mutation and accomplishment of the research, reminds the radiating support of paranormal subjects irrespective of degree, time and distance. And so, it is obligatory to avow and panegyryze their conscientious actions by expressing gratitude in ad-infinitum. The researcher feels gratified by offering reverence to the reverend guild of teachers, scholars, parent, family, relatives and autochthons of the representative sample area for the study. Considering the long list, the researcher here would like to gravitate only on those persons who are directly concerned.

First of all, the researcher feels highly obliged and gratified while offering gratitude to the benign gesture of reverend Dr. Niladri Ranjan Dash, Reader, A paragon of virtue emerged as a resuscitator and guide, revived the work by enabling to bring a Volte-face in perception, attitude and action. Without arrie're, pense'e, the present work is replica of his visionary guidance and midas touch. The researcher solemnly offers tribute with commiseration to late Dr. Jyoten P. Vyas, Reader, under whose able guidance the research commenced.

The researcher is highly obliged and reverent for being in the auspicious aura of esteemed Mrs. Vimala Rangaswamy (Ex-Head of the Department of Geography), Mrs. Jayshree De (Ex-Head of the Department of Geography), Mrs. Rollee Kanchan (Reader), Dr. A. A. Ansari (Reader), Mrs. Ami Rawal, and Ms. Bindoo Bhatt.

The researcher feels most gratified while accepting indebtedness for the philanthropic attitude of Mr. Kirit Patel, Mr. Sanjay Joshi, Mr. J. Shinarkar (cartographer), Mr. Sanjay Patel (cartographer), Mr. Kanu Baria, Mr. Prashant Andharikar, Dr. R. P. Bane and others.

The Researcher is also obliged for the un-interrupted support of administration of The M. S. University of Baroda, Smt. Hansa Mehta Library of The University, Library of Faculty of Social Work of the University, Library of Allahabad University, Bhasha Sansthan and Tribal Academy (Tejgarh, Chota Udaipur), Government Central Press (Gujarat), Social Welfare and Tribal Development Department (Tribal Development Division, Government of Gujarat) and District Land Survey Department (Devgarhbaria).

The researcher owes indebtedness and reverence for favourable anticipation of Dr. Ganesh Devi (Director, Tribal Academy, Tejgarh, Chota Udaipur), Ms. Surekha Devi (Head, Chemistry Department, M.S.U.), and Pathan Y. Khan (Principal, M. C. Rathva College, Pavi Jetpur, Baroda).

The researcher owes greater consideration for the support of all the friends, especially, Pathan Mohsin Khan Yusuf, Kishore Raghuvansh (Researcher, Archaeology), Vijay Sutharia (Researcher, Pharmacy), Rajesh Kumar (Lecturer, S. N. D. T. University), S. S. Sahu (Researcher, Economics), Dr. Hitendra Maurya, Tejas Desai (M. Ed.), Mitesh Patel (Researcher, Chemistry), Vikas Sharma (Researcher, Bio-Chemistry) and Sanjay Jha (Researcher, Bio-Technology).

The researcher feels solace while offering deep reverence to Guru Maharaj, late grand parents, parents – Mr. Devi Prasad Tripathi and Ms. Siyapati Tripathi, elder brother – R. P. Tripathi, sister-in-law – Ms. Mamta Tripathi, Mr. B. L. Pandey, Ms. S. Pandey, Mr. T. Gaur, Mrs. Hipta Gaur and Mrs. Sebastian for their preaching's and blessings and has regards for the love, affection and inspiring support of brother Dr. Gyanendra Tripathi, Dr. Bhavana Tripathi, Ms. Madhavi Tripathi, Ku. Divya, Ku. Apurva, Ku. Medha, Ku. Ishita, Ku. Apoorva, Ku. Tanvi, Master Ashutosh and Rushi. Some of the memorable helping hands are also to be mentioned, such as Dr. D. P. Bharambe, Ambalalbhair, Narayan and some others.

Retrospection of the moral support from Mrs. Ranjita Dash and Master Sharan Dash, proved to be like emanating fragrance and so their support will never be forgotten. Here, it is necessary to offer reverence to Mrs. Shilpa Amin and Mr. Tushar Amin for their hidden support in reviving the course of action and completion of the work. A sprouting reverence is offered to Guru Saratchandraji for his blessings and Bragdish Iyer for his moral support.

A deep gratitude is offered to all those who have directly or indirectly helped at different stages in the completion of the thesis with their support, love and affection.

Dharmendra Tripathi