DATA ANALYSIS AND INTERPRETATION OF THE RESEARCH STUDY

Sr. No.	PARTICULARS	PAGE NUMBER
5.0	Introduction	162
5.1	Profile of Selected m-Commerce Users	162
5.2	Views Regarding Friendliest Operating System in Mobile Phones	167
5.3	Frequency, Place, Average Time and Preferred Time Spent for Shopping via Mobile Phones	168
	5.3.1 Frequency of Shopping Using Mobile Phones	168
	5.3.2 Preferred Place for Shopping Using Mobile Phones	169
	5.3.3 Preferred Time of Shopping Using Mobile Phones	170
	5.3.4 Average Time Spent on Shopping Using Mobile Phones	171
5.4	Source of Information for Shopping through mobile phones	172
5.5	Reason for Downloading and Using Commerce Applications	173
5.6	Number of mobile Applications Used for m-Commerce Transaction	174
5.7	Products Bought Through m-Commerce Transactions	175
5.8	Response Regarding Their Overall Awareness, Download and Usage of m-Commerce Applications	176
5.9	Perception of m-Commerce Users for the Cost involved in m-Commerce Transaction	177
5.10	Perception Regarding Personalisation of m-commerce Transaction	179
5.11	Perception Regarding Privacy of m-Commerce Transaction	180
5.12	Perception Regarding Perceived Trust involved in m-Commerce Transaction	181
5.13	Perception Regarding Perceived Risk involved in m-Commerce Transaction	182
5.14	Perception Regarding Perceived Ease of Use involved in m-Commerce Transaction	184
5.15	Perception Regarding Perceived Usefulness involved in m-Commerce Transaction	185
5.16	Perception Regarding Social Norms involved in m-Commerce Transaction	186
5.17	Perception Regarding Perceived Behavioural Control involved in m-Commerce Transaction	187
5.18	Perception Regarding Attitude involved in m-Commerce Transaction	189
5.18	Perception Regarding Adoption Intention involved in m-Commerce Transaction	190
5.20	Perception Regarding Users' Overall Satisfaction While Using m-Commerce	192
5.21	Discussions and Interpretations	194

CHAPTER: 6
FINDINGS AND IMPLICATIONS OF THE RESEARCH STUDY

Para Number	Particulars	Page Number
6.0	Introduction	203
6.1	Findings of Correlation	203
6.1.1	Findings of Correlation Between Attitude Towards Adopting m-Commerce and Perceived Cost, Personalisation, Privacy, Perceived Trust, Perceived Risk, Perceived Ease of Use, Perceived Usefulness, Social Norms, and Perceived Behavioural Control	203
6.1.2	Findings of Correlations between factors such as perceived cost, personalisation, privacy, trust, perceived risk, ease-of-use, perceived usefulness, social norms, perceived behavioural control and attitude, with intention toward mobile commerce adoption	204
6.1.3	Implications of Correlation study	205
6.2	Findings of application of Chi-square test	206
6.2.1	Association of Perceived Cost, Personalisation, Privacy, Perceived Trust, Perceived Risk, Perceived Ease of Use, Perceived Usefulness, Social Norms, Perceived Behavioural Control, Attitude and Adoption Intention with Selected Demographic Variables Viz., Age; Gender; Marital Status; Type of Family; Occupation and Annual Income	206
6.2.2	Implications of the Research Study Based on Chi-Square Test Results on Different m-Commerce Drivers viz Perceived Cost, Personalisation, Privacy, Perceived Trust, Perceived Risk, Perceived Ease of Use, Perceived Usefulness, Social Norms, Perceived Behavioural Control, Attitude and Adoption Intention vis-a-vis Selected Demographic Variables Such as Age; Gender, Income, Occupation, Type of Family and Marital Status	217
6.3	Results of the Kruskal-Wallis Test on Selected Attributes of Selected m-Commerce Users Viz., Perceived Cost, Personalisation, Privacy, Perceived Trust, Perceived Risk, Perceived Ease of Use, Perceived Usefulness, Social Norms and Perceived Behavioural Control, Attitude and Adoption Intention of m-Commerce in Selected Four Cities of Gujarat	222
6.3.1	A Post-hoc Test to Identify Differences in Mobile Commerce Users' Opinions in Terms of Perceived Cost, Personalisation, Privacy, Perceived Trust, Perceived Risk, Perceived Ease of Use, Perceived Usefulness, Social Norms, Perceived Behavioural Control, Attitude and Adoption Intention from the Four Selected Cities of Gujarat State	223
6.4	Findings of Structural Equation Modelling [SEM] using Analysis of Moment Structures [AMOS]	233
6.4.1	Evaluation of Structural Equation Model	238
6.4.2	Implications of Structural Equation Modelling (SEM) Results	240
6.5	Major Findings of the Research Study	243
