

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

“If you think, you can, you can....” this quotation is true for many aspects in my life including this research.

My heartfelt acknowledgements to Prof. (Dr.) G. C. Maheshwari for his constant guidance and motivation for completing this endeavor. I am highly obliged and grateful to him for providing me critical suggestions and feedback during this research. I am also thankful for his kind comments and constructive criticisms throughout this work which helped me to constantly endeavor to learn and improve at every stage of the work.

I am also thankful to Prof. (Dr.) K. M. Joshi, head of department, and the staff of Faculty of Management Studies for their kind support during the course of my doctoral work.

I express my gratitude to all those executives of different distribution companies and other institutes in the power sector, who spared their precious time and took pain in filling up the questionnaire – a primary source of information for this thesis.

I am thankful in particular, to some prominent experts for personal interviews: namely Mr. R. O. Gandhi (Retd., Chief Engineer & Manager, MGVCL), Mr. J. C. Marathe (Retd., Chief Engineer & Joint Managing Director, MGVCL), Mr. S. M. Godkhindi (Chief Engineer, MGVCL), Dr. P. K. Mishra (Chairman, GERC), Mr. Kapil Mohan (Director - distribution, Ministry of Power, Government of India), Mr. N. K. Gupta (DGM, PGCIL), Mr. Rajiv Pharlina (PFC), Mr. Puneet Munjal (Head – Regulation, NDPL, Delhi), and many others for providing many insights related to this work.

I express my deep appreciation to my colleagues Mr. Vijay Patel, Mr. Rohit Patel and Mr. Gautam Modi for their constant support and encouragement.

I am indebted to all my family members who made a lot of sacrifices on account of my research. My father, late Shri Govindbhai Modi, always remained a source of inspiration to me. I owe a great deal to him and feel that I could fulfill his dream. I wish to specially acknowledge the kind support of my brother, late Pradip Modi who supported me during initial stage of my study. I would like to express my sincere thanks to my elder brother, Dr. Ashwin Modi, and my mother, Smt. Bhanumatiben Modi, who always supported me in all my endeavors. No words are enough to express my gratitude to Mrs. Gopi Modi and little – Vrinda, wife and daughter, for several sacrifices they made as I remained too busy in this work.

My heartiest reverence is at the lotus feet of Swamishri Pu. Pramukh Swamiji Maharaj for his blessings and lessons. This thesis is the blossoming of his calmly active blessings.

Last but not the least, the almighty Lord Swaminarayan for providing this wonderful opportunity and making me capable enough to undertake this challenging research.
