

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I cannot bring myself to believe that this all-too brief note of thanks reflects my deep sense of gratitude in full measure, to those who are instrumental for the successful conduct and completion of my doctoral thesis. These are several persons helping in different ways without which it would not have been possible to complete it.

I am immensely grateful to my Guide and Supervisor Prof.Dr.S.N.Parikh, Ex-Dean, Faculty of Law, M.S.University of Baroda, Vadodara, who inspired and guided me into refreshingly new realms of research entitled – “GLOBAL COBWEB: CYBERCRIMES IN THE BORDERLESS WORLD: A COMPARATIVE PERSPECTIVE WITH SPECIAL RERERENCE TO U.S.A., CANADA AND INDIA”.

Coming as he does from an illustrious line of legal academicians, Prof.Dr.S.N.Parikh was a Professor of law par excellence and had impressive innings in the noble calling of teaching and research. His scholarship is not cribbed and copped to ivory towers of traditional curriculum. It has amazing breadth and sweep in terms of intellectual eminence. Working with him has been both a privilege and pleasure. His rare combination of reason seasoned by experience and clarity of thought greatly helped me. I am beholden to him for his inspiring guidance, for his patience and pains he took to go through the draft, pointing out mistakes and making valuable suggestions and comments. As a committed research supervisor, he put his shoulder to the wheel. It was quite expedient that I had to place heavy indent on his precious time and often trespassing his busy schedule, yet he has been condescendingly kind enough to guide my research work and concluded the stupendous task on time.

I am very thankful to Dr.Syed Maswood, I/c Head, Department of law and I/c Dean, Faculty of Law, M.S.University of Baroda, for all of his valuable suggestions that helped me a lot for the successful completion of doctoral thesis.

I am equally grateful to my wife whose sincere interest and continuous enquiry regarding the progress of the study has been a constant source of inspiration in my research pursuit.

My thanks are due to Shri Apurva Pathak, my teacher, for his valuable suggestions and comments.

I thank to staff of Faculty of Law, M.S.University of Baroda, Vadodara who helped me in the process of office transactions right from registration to submission of this thesis. Lastly a lot of thanks to the staff of Cann Digital Print, Vadodara who gave final shape and design to the work.
