

INDEX

CHAPTER 1: INTRODUCTION

1. Introduction
2. Law and its Growth
3. The term 'Internet' defined
4. Origin and growth of Internet
5. How Internet works
6. Internet is a Global Cobweb
7. Who runs the Net?
8. Future of Internet

CHAPTER 2: EXISTING LEGAL FRAMEWORK IN INDIA TO CURB CYBERCRIMES

1. Introduction
2. Objective of the Information Technology Act 2000
3. Some important highlights of the IT Act
4. Important provisions of the IT Act
5. Legal Issues involved in the IT Act 2000
6. Applicability of Provisions of Indian Penal Code and Law of Torts to cybercrimes
7. Conclusion

CHAPTER 3: CYBER CRIMES

1. Introduction
2. Fundamental principles of Criminal Liability
3. Definition of the term 'cyber crime' and its special characteristics
4. Cyber crime under the Information technology Act 2000
5. Different kinds of cyber crimes
 - 5.1 Hacking and Cracking
 - 5.2 Launching of Virus
 - 5.3 Cyberstalking, Harassment and E-Mail abuse
 - 5.4 Fraud on Internet
 - 5.5 E-mail spoofing
 - 5.6 Pornography on Internet
 - 5.7 Security related crimes
 - 5.8 Internet Gambling
6. Study of Federal Laws in the USA
7. Some other offences provided in the Information Technology Act 2000
8. How can Criminal Justice System of world control cyber crime
9. What can be done
10. Conclusion

CHAPTER 4: PORNOGRAPHY AND INTERNET

1. Introduction
2. Definition of the term 'Pornography'
3. Legal provisions relating to obscenity in India
4. Position in the USA
5. Position in Canada
6. Why is cyber pornography difficult to regulate? Some suggestions for regulation
7. Conclusion

CHAPTER 5: PROBLEM OF JURISDICTION OF COURTS IN INTERNET RELATED DISPUTES

(I). Principles of Jurisdiction from the US perspective

- a). History and development of basis of Jurisdiction in the USA
- b). Kinds of Jurisdiction
- c). Principles of Personal Jurisdiction
- d). Nature of Internet
- e). Traditional Jurisdictional concepts applied to Internet
- f). Legal implications of Advertisements made on Internet
- g). Legal implications of Active/Passive websites
- h). Other Internet Jurisdiction cases
- i). Analysis

(II). Basis of Jurisdiction of Courts from Canadian perspective

- 1). Introduction
- 2). Regulating the Internet
- 3). Jurisdiction of courts in Internet related disputes
- 4). Competence over Internet Disputes: The American experience to date.
- 5). Conclusion

(III). Basis of Jurisdiction of Courts from Indian perspective

- a). Basis of Jurisdiction of Civil Courts in India
- b). 'Cause of Action' – Its applicability to Internet cases
- c). Jurisdiction of courts and the Information Technology Act 2000
- d). Applicability of Foreign Judgments in India
- e). Analysis and Conclusion

CHAPTER 6: RIGHT OF PRIVACY AND INTERNET

1. Introduction
2. Evolution and growth of concept of Privacy
3. Defining Privacy in Digital Age
4. Various aspects of Privacy
5. How Internet is different
6. What do we mean by Privacy and how it is violated on Internet
7. How to protect the right of privacy in digital age
8. Different possible modes of protecting right of privacy in digital age
 - a). Comprehensive laws
 - b). Sectoral laws
 - c). Self Regulation
 - d). Technologies
9. Conclusion

CHAPTER 7: MEASURES FOR COMBATING CYBER CRIMES

1. Introduction
2. Internet regulation – A legal challenge
3. Possible ways to combat cyber crimes
 - a). Regulation by developing technologies
 - b). Regulation through legislations
 - 1). Regulation by sovereign governments
 - 2). Multilateral treaties
 - 3). Self regulation of Internet
4. Proposed method for Internet Regulation
 - a). Applying all the possible modes to regulate net
 - b). How can cyberspace be governed
 1. Multilateral treaty
 2. International organisation
 - c). Enforcement mechanism
 - d). Critical evaluation of Proposed Mode
 - 1). Multilateral treaty
 - 2). International organisation
 - 3). General & Specific territory
5. Conclusion

CHAPTER 8: CONCLUSION

BIBLIOGRAPHY