

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In my long journey of scientific answers, I was supported immensely by many people in their unique ways for which this became a lifetime experience. At this juncture, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to all of them whose association and contribution have been a driving force for me in completing the study.

I cannot express thanks in just few words to my research guide Prof. C. Ratna Prabha. I am fortunate to carry out my doctoral work under her guidance. She bestowed immense faith in me which strengthened my confidence and boosted u my morale. I am very grateful for her patience, motivation, enthusiasm and forgiveness. I am thankful to madam for the freedom she gave me for working in the laboratory as I needed. Her immense knowledge in the field, scientific counselling and urge to seek performance in science has inspired me to strive for excellence. Her corrections and critical remarks for presenting matter in scientific way have encouraged me to prove my abilities. Thank you very much madam for everything.

I again sincerely show my gratitude to Prof. C. Ratna Prabha, Head, Department of Biochemistry for supporting and providing infrastructure which were needed to accomplish the work and being kind, supportive and motivating. I heartily thank Prof. Haribhai Kataria, Dean, Faculty of Science for helping me from his best whenever I got stuck in my research journey. I adore your helping nature sir. I acknowledge member of my Doctoral committee Prof. Anuradha Nerurkar, Department of Microbiology and Prof. Pushpa Robin, Director, Cell and Molecular Biology Department for generously offering timely guidance and excellent suggestions at annual seminars which helped me a lot in improving my experiments. I would like to thank Prof. G. Naresh Kumar, Prof. Sarita Gupta, Prof, Rasheedunnisa Begum, Dr. Jayashree Pohnekar, Prof. Pushpa Robin, Dr. Shashikant Acharya, Dr. Rajesh Singh, Dr. LaxmiPriya, Dr. Ravi Vijayvargia, Dr. Devesh Suthar, Dr. Sanjeev Upadhyay and Dr. Mayur Sahani for their encouraging words, criticism, scientific discussions and valuable suggestions throughout the research tenure.

I am wholeheartedly grateful to Prof. Bhavana Trivedi, Department of Chemistry for extending CHI 600C electrochemical workstation facility and helping me out to understand electrochemical techniques. My experiment would not have been completed without her support. My special thanks to Pratik, Nazneen, Anish and Rajesh who helped me to work over there. I am extremely grateful to Prof. C. N. Murthy, Dean, Faculty of Engineering and Technology, The M. S. University of Baroda to encourage and support me to pursue my research interest in electrochemical biosensor field. I am very thankful to sir for inspiring me to do research and expand my territories in applied chemistry field. I am immensely thankful to Dr. Shweta Gupta, my senior and co-author who directed me towards the field of biosensors and also funded the organophosphorus biosensor. I am grateful to Dr. Prasenjit Maity, Director at Institute of Research and Development, Gujarat Forensic Science University, Gandhinagar for Atomic Force Microscopic analysis of electrode surfaces. I also acknowledge Dr. Prajesh Prajapati, Gujarat Forensic Science University and Prof. R C Tandel, Department of Applied Chemistry for FT-IR analysis. I sincerely acknowledge IIT-Bombay, Chemistry Department and SAIF for SEM analysis of electrode surfaces. I am highly grateful to Prof. Arun Arya for providing me Paraoxon pesticide to optimize Organophosphorus pesticide biosensor.

I am highly grateful to all the office staff of Department of Biochemistry including Akshitaben, Manishbhai, Shaileshbhai, Rameshbhai, Vijaybhai and all non-teaching staff members for their help and guidance in all the official matters whenever I needed. I thank Milind Bhai (DADA), Mayurbhai (Academic section), Chiragbhai, Rajeshbhai (GCU Section), Ajaybhai (GCU Section), Hetalben (GCU Section), Kaushik Bhai (Dean's Office), Trupti ben (Dean's Office), Gopalbhai (Dean's Office), Ekta Shah (Audit Section), Chitra Gupte (Audit Section), Neeta madam for their conducive and friendly support at University Protocols.

I would like to extend my gratitude to The M. S. University of Baroda for providing me JRF and DSIR-NRDC for Research scientist post.

I acknowledge my current and past lab members, without whom the task was impossible. I thank my lab seniors Dr. Ankita Doshi, Dr. Varsha Raimalani, Dr. Brinda Panchamia and Dr. Pranshu Yadav and Mr. Hemang Brahmbhatt who have taught me a good laboratory practices and made me understand the scientific problems as and when I required. Their punctuality, hard work and dedication towards work have always motivated me. I would like to thank Sandeep, Dimpal, Krishna, Anjali, Megha and Bhoomi for their constant help in the research work and to make the lab atmosphere light and enjoyable. I would like to thank all the dissertation students for being supportive, enthusiastic, party makers and outing sources.

No Journey is accomplished in isolation. It's the friends who make any journey lively, happy and meaningful. I would like to extend my heartiest thanks to my friends and colleagues

Tanvi, Akash, Dhruv, Gurpreet, Shushmita, Raju, Meenal, Nishant, Jaywadan, Vaidehi, and Anjali for their unconditional support during scientific sessions as well as for other stuffs. I would like to thank my senior Prasant sir for his constant support during my work. I would like to thank all the research scholars of the Department of Biochemistry Riddhi Vyas, Arpi, Maharshi, Shivani, Vasudha, Prashant, Fatema, Roma, Sayantani, Shani, Dhruvi and Karishma for their constant support till the end.

I am thankful from my heart to Tanvi (my all-time supporter, booster, and “Coffee partner”), Akashbhai (who keeps available himself for any discussion which I really enjoy) and Acharya sir for refreshing discussions at tea sessions. Thank you Tanvi for not making me feel homesickness and to take care like a twin sister. I specially thank Dimpal for being very supportive, helpful and enthusiastic junior who made the biosensor lab culture more lively. I thank all for being with me during my bad moods and lightening my moods.

I am very thankful to Dr. Chitrarpita Saha, my roommate during my hostel stay. She has always listened my problems gently and constantly motivated me to overcome my bad moods. I also thank Miss. Sudeshna Chatterjee, being younger to me she has always adored and showered love to me. I shower love to all my hostel friends Ms. Manisha Sharma, Dr. Nidhi Astik, Dr. Trupti Dubey, Priyanka Mathur, Dr. Disha Mehta, Dr. Monika Yadav and Dr. Chhavi Ganguar for not letting me feel homesickness. I am very thankful to Manisha Sharma for always encouraging me saying “Didi karlo na thoda sa hi to baki hena, likhlo jaldi, hojaega” during last phase of my thesis writing. I am also grateful to Dr. Riddhi Patel Rajput for pushing me during my low phase of doctoral studies saying “Jaldi kar have bahu time lidho”. Thank you Manisha Sharma for being my constant support by doing my “SEVA” day and night during my illness in hostel. I specially thank “The Biosensor Team” (Dimpal, Deena and Kriva) and Krishna for their generous, unconditional and extreme support in every aspect during last phase of doctoral study. I am heartily thankful to Deena who took care of me when I was hospitalized and away from home. Thank you for everything Deena. I also thank all the non-teaching staff of the department (Axitaben, Rameshkaka, Shaileshbhai, Manishbhai, Vijaybhai, Anilbhai and Balwantbhai) for supporting me in managing my work and duties. I also thank Minaxiben for regularly cleaning my hostel room and washing my clothes thus releasing the burden of managing my hostel life.

I would like to express my heartiest gratitude and thanks to my loving and caring family for their enormous support during the journey. They have constantly been a source of inspirations no matter whatever situation befall me they stood behind me to support and encourage me. The word “Thank you” would be too small to define their hard work and sacrifices to see me in this state as of today. Seeing their zeal, I could keep on going in my Research life and complete the journey successfully. I heartily remember and adore my grandparents Lt. Smt. Amaben S. Thakkar and Shri. Shivalal P. Thakkar for sowing spirituality during my upbringing. Dadabapa (Lt. Shri. Shivalal P. Thakkar) nurtured my vision of imagination by telling lots of Katha like Mahabharata, Ramayana, Panchatantra, Raja Shri Harish Chandra, Bhakta Prahlad and Dhruva etc. during my childhood. I remember my Nanabapa (Lt. Shri Ambaram K. Thakkar) with my tears in eyes who used to call me “Doctor saheb” since I got register for my doctoral study. I take this research as heartily blessings of my Dadimaa (Lt. Smt. Ambaben S. Thakkar) and Nanimaa (Smt. Shantaben A. Thakkar). I adore my parents to enlighten and motivate me in every aspect of my life. I adore my Pappa, Mr. Bharatbhai S. Thakkar and Mummy, Mrs. Dayaben B. Thakkar for teaching me practical aspects of life which made me stronger in this journey. However, my words can’t express gratitude to my parents for whatever they have given me since my birth. I adulate my brother, Mr. Dharmik B. Thakkar and sister-in-law, Mrs. Avani D. Thakkar for their tireless hopes, suggestions and enormous support. I thank my Maa and Bhabhi for their patience, support and for excluding me from all social duties and household works. I thank my family for excusing my absence during the tenure. I deeply thank Mr. Venus Sharma for being anger soaking support and bearing my unexpected behavior during my bad moods. I esteem you for helping me out in all adverse situations. I admire Mr. Venus Sharma for being visionary support of my doctoral study, he literally pushed me to pursue the doctorate degree.

Finally, I thank one and all in case I forgot to mention who have helped me complete my Ph.D. work. I feel happy and lucky to have enormous support from all dimensions at the end of the journey. Last but not the least I would like to thank Almighty God for giving me the strength to complete my doctoral study and stand up to all the expectations of my family and teacher.

Miss Jinal Bharatbhai Thakkar
