

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

“Be present in all things and thankful for all things”- Maya Angelou. First and foremost I join my hands and bow my head in gratitude to the Almighty for showering His countless blessings on me and making me what I am today.

As I completed writing the thesis, my late parents’ dream came true. It was my late father who sowed the seed of research work in me. I acknowledge with reverence their contribution in shaping my life and I genuflect before their memories.

I take this opportunity to acknowledge all those who have guided, counseled, and helped me to tread on the path of success and achievements.

My deep gratitude to my guide and mentor Professor Dr. Dipti Oza, department of Education, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda for her constant support and guidance at each and every step of my work. She has been a wonderful soul throughout my journey. She was a beacon of light through my entire traverse. I was lucky to have her as my guide who not only guided me but counseled me to tread on this wonderful path of accomplishment.

My sincere gratitude to Professor Dr. R C Patel Head Dean, the Department of Education, Faculty of Education and Psychology, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Vadodara for his unflinching support and cooperation at each and every step of my endeavor. His vision and promptness helped me to sail through the stormy weather. I take this opportunity to thank him from the bottom of my heart.

I express my love and gratitude to my husband Mr. Jane Varghese for his relentless efforts at each and every step of my journey. He is my strength and stood by me at all times supporting me and guiding me. I thank my children Akash Jane Akansha Jane Yamini Jayprakash and Shanu Thomas for their moral and technological support.

I express my acknowledgment to Professor Biswal, Department of Education, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda for his cooperation throughout the course work.

I am indebted to Professor K. Pushpanadham, Educational Administration, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda for introducing me to my guide Dr. Dipti Oza.