

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Undertaking this Ph.D. has been a truly life-changing experience for me and it would not be possible to do without the kind support and humble guidance of my research supervisor, Dr. Laxmipriya Nampoothiri. I would like to thank her from bottom of my heart for not only supporting me through my Ph.D. but also showing belief in me during my M.Sc. dissertation project. I still cannot and won't forget her support during my first animal experimentation, when I was quite afraid of animals. Perhaps I would not have begun this journey without her encouragement. Among the foremost things, a debt of gratitude is owed to her for teaching me life lessons about punctuality, accuracy, and ethics during my Ph.D. My sincerest thanks to you ma'am for being my guide and believing in me during this journey.

I am extremely grateful to Prof. C. Ratna Prabha Head, and Prof. Sarita Gupta, former Head, Department of Biochemistry, MSUB, for providing all the necessary support and access to the instrumentation facility to complete my work and for being always supportive and encouraging.

I offer my sincerest appreciation to Vice Chancellor, Prof. V. K. Srivastava and Prof. Haribhai Kataria, Dean, Faculty of Science, MSUB for proving the necessary infrastructure and resources to accomplish my research work.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to all the Doctoral committee members, Prof. Sarita Gupta, Prof. Pushpa Robin, and Dr. Padamnabhi S. Nagar for their constructive feedback, corrections, and criticism. Their regular input has aided in the development of my Ph.D. I would also like to acknowledge the past and present faculties of the department, Prof. R. Begum, Prof. Pushpa Robin, Prof. J. K. Pohnerkar, Prof. Rajesh Singh, Dr. S. R. Acharya, Dr. Ravi Vijayvargia, Dr. Devesh Suthar and Dr. Sanjeev K Upadhyay for their kind encouragement throughout my Ph.D.

A special thanks to Dr. Ravi Vijayvargia. Sir has always helped me in many ways and given me valuable suggestions, especially in problem-solving with the obstinate western blots. Thank you, sir. I want to express my thanks to Prof. Rajesh Singh and Prof. G. Naresh Kumar for access to their laboratory equipment whenever I needed it.

The animal house staff, Rameshhai, Vijaybhai, and Narayanbhai have always made my task simple during my major in vivo experiments by helping me with mouse handling and maintenance. Thank you so much. I will sincerely miss working in the animal house the most. I would also like to thank all the office staff at the Biochemistry department for always supporting me whenever I needed their help. Special thanks to Bhartiben Patel for her constant help in the management of the project documents.

I am extremely obliged to Dr. Prashant Murumkar, Department of Pharmacy, MSUB for their incredible support in the in-silico study. Further, special thanks to Rasana Yadav, the molecular docking study would not have been possible without your kind help.

Immeasurable thanks and deepest gratitude to Dr. Rajesh Jha, CDRI Lucknow, to allow me to do the work in his lab and assisting me with the pregnancy experiments.

I humbly acknowledge Arjun Sir, Gujarat Life Sciences and The Science Ashram Vadodara, Gujarat, for their financial support in the toxicology study, DBT, Govt. of India for financial support in the form of a research fellowship and Research Consultancy Cell, MSUB for proving financial help in GC-MS analysis.

I would acknowledge Prof. B. Suresh, Department of Zoology, MSUB for the photomicrographs of ovarian histology. Dr. Prakash Seppan, PGIBMS Chennai, for helping in the data interpretation of the Histo-architecture of the embryo-implanted region of the uterus, and Prof. Rakesh Tyagi, and Prof. Anil Pillai for gifting the antibodies of AR, and estrogen receptors.

I consider myself fortunate to have supportive and encouraging lab seniors, Dr. Radha Maharjan, Dr. Nirja Chaudhari, and Dr. Arpi Dey. Thank you for always being there for me. Radha ma'am has helped me with all the lab instruments handling. Nirja ma'am had been always a great support from whom I learned many things from basic calculations to the experiment design. Arpi ma'am for constantly helping me with every small and big problem of mine, including proofreading the manuscript. She was always motivating me whenever I failed in any experiment, and always being ready to help me in troubleshooting experiments. This path of the Ph.D. could not be possible without your support, love, and care. I'll never forget our amusing conversations. Thank you, ma'am. I would like to thank my loving and caring lab juniors, Ananya, Gautami and Zeel for their unconditional support and current/past LPL members, Garima, Payal, Vasudha, and Prashant for their help.

I would like to acknowledge dissertation students, Naisargi, Anjana, and Jalak who have significantly contributed to this study. It was great working with you girls! Harshil and Brij for being always fun-loving, and making this journey memorable.

I would like to convey special thanks to the research scholars for supporting me throughout my Ph.D. Sejal ma'am being a wonderful senior helped me in every situation, especially during the thesis writing, Thank you Bhaibandh. Kashmira, for helping me with the photomicrographs of ovarian histology, Kalpana for helping in a big way with the authentication of Aloe vera, Mitul sir, Gaurav sir, and Shahnawaz sir for their support in the troubleshooting regarding RT-PCR, Gurprit ma'am for all kind help, especially in the documentation regarding thesis submission, Jyoti, Minal, Satakshi, Anjali for their help in the operation of the instrument in the lab whenever I required.

Special thanks to Anjali and Sandeep for being fantastic friends who never fail to bring a smile and encourage me in their own way. Bhanu's non-scientific discussions make me feel lively during this journey. Daksha for being a most understanding friend who always being there for me. Ankit's insightful talks make me think twice about not giving up in any situation.

I dedicate this thesis to my family, who have consistently inspired and uplifted me. My mom's unwavering optimism and my father's tenacious hard work have been motivating forces that have aided me in overcoming my setbacks. My heartfelt gratitude goes to my loving, caring, and dearest Big B, Hardik. He has always been there for me in every up and down and his humorous touches kept me amused. I owe everything to him. Further, I would like to thank my Bhabhi for making all the delicious food during my Ph.D. and My Nani for always being willing to assist in her own unique way. I've always treasured this time with my adorable niece and nephew. Harvi, and Kriday's smiles made me smile always. Contribution from the each of the member will never be filled up by any expression of thanks.

Sincere appreciation goes out to everyone who was consciously or inadvertently involved in this piece of work and made it possible.
