

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This Research Project was undertaken under the able guidance of Professor G.C.Beri, Ph.D.(London), Head, Department of Commerce including Business Administration, Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda. I am highly indebted to him for his contineous and invaluable efforts in going through the manuscript of my thesis and in suggesting the proper methods to be followed for the betterment of the work. I express my heartfelt thanks to him for the guidance provided to me in the midst of his busy schedule.

I am thankful to the authorities of Tribhuvan University, Nepal for kindly granting me a Fellowship under its Faculty Development Programme for the period 1982-85, plus an extension of the leave required for the completion of the thesis.

Thanks are due to the Managers of all the Industrial Estates covered under this study, for sparing their invaluable time in filling up the questionnaire personally in the midst of their busy schedule. Moreover, I must express special thanks to Mr.G.B.Shaha, the Executive Director of ISC and Mr.P.D. Shrestha, the Branch Chief, Industrial Districts Planning and Development Branch, ISC, without whose cooperation I would not have been able to collect required data, both primary and secondary required for the study. In addition, it would be ungratefulness on my part, if I forget the trouble the respondent Entrepreneurs/Managers had taken in supplying the basic data of the study. So, I hereby express my heartfelt thanks to them all.

I also express gratitude towards the respected Librarians of all the undermentioned libraries for the kind permissions they have granted to use the materials of their respective Libraries, viz., Smt.Hansa Mehta Library of M.S.U. of Baroda; Library of Indian Institute of Management,Ahmedabad; Delhi University Library, Delhi; Library of Indian Institute of Economic Growth, Delhi; Sapru House Library, Delhi; UNDP Library, Kathmandu; Tribhuvan University Library, Kathmandu; Shankar Dev Campus Library, Kathmandu; Industrial Services Centre Library, Balaju, Kathmandu; Public Administration Campus Library, Kathmandu; Public Youth Campus Library, Kathmandu and American Library, Kathmandu.

I express my sincere thanks and gratefulness to my respected teacher and Ex-Dean of Faculty of Management T.U, Prof.Upendra Bahadur Pradhananga, without whose encouragement, insistence and cooperation, I would not have completed the study.

I also express my gratefulness and thanks to my husband, Mr. Shankar Shrestha, without whose cooperation and encouragement, it would have been impossible to complete the work.

Lastly, I express my deep appreciation to many other friends in Faculty of Commerce, both in Baroda and Kathmandu, who helped me in various ways in this endeavour.

- RAJANI SHRESTHA

Baroda,

March 1987.