
TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Page No.
Abstract	i - vi
1 INTRODUCTION	1- 6
2 REVIEW OF LITERATURE.. .. .	7- 38
A. History of Tea Industry in Assam	7- 26
I. Growth of the tea industry in Assam	8- 14
II. Recruitment of labour.. .. .	14- 26
B. Health and Nutritional Status of Various Kinds of Plantation/Construction/ Agricultural workers	26- 38
I. Global studies	26- 33
II. Indian studies	33- 38
3. METHODS AND MATERIALS	39- 69
A. General objectives of the study.. .. .	39
B. Sample selection.. .. .	40- 41
C. Experimental design	41- 42
D. Parameters and techniques used for data collection	43- 67
E. Computerization of data	67- 68
F. Statistical analysis	68- 69
4. RESULTS AND DISCUSSION	70-190
A. Description of socio-economic (SE) and environmental factors in the three types of plantations	73-101

---contd..

Table of Contents

Page No.

B.	Influence of peak and lean tea plucking seasons on the food and nutrient intake and on the health and nutritional status of workers in the three types of plantations.102-142
C.	Effect of socio-economic and environmental factors on the health and nutritional status of the workers142-180
D.	Quality of Life Index (QLI) of workers in the three types of plantations180-190
4.	SUMMARY AND CONCLUSION191-205
5.	BIBLIOGRAPHY206-222
	APPENDICES223-230
