

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I must place on record my gratitude to my research supervisor, Professor M.M.Dadi, Department of Economics, M. S. University, Baroda, for the keen interest he evinced in my present research. I have drawn heavily upon his valuable time and intellectual resources. I may mention particularly the training he gave me in the use of quantitative techniques in the present work. His constant encouragement made it a pleasure to work with him. I am indebted to him.

I am highly grateful to Professor V.N.Kothari, Head, Department of Economics, M.S.University, Baroda, who was not only kind enough to award the fellowship but who also provided all the necessary facilities for the smooth conduct of my research work in the department. I also thank Prof. S.R.Hashim, Dr. Atul Sharma and Prof. M.S. Trivedi for their help, direct and indirect.

Dr. Ravi. H. Dholakia showed great interest in my work. I benefitted greatly through fruitful discussions with him. Thanks are due to him.

The present study, with respect to collection of data, involved co-operation of several officials and friends.

In this connection, special mention has to be made of the help and co-operation extended by Shri R.G.Bhatt, Director, Karnataka State Bureau of Economics and Statistics, and his Officials; Shri M.B.Gowada, Deputy Director, District Planning Unit, State Planning Department and Shri V.C.Patil, Assistant Engineer, Bangalore, I am grateful to all of them.

The help and co-operation of the staff of the M. S. University Computer Centre in general and of Miss Jayashree R.. Purandare, who took keen interest in developing programs for data analysis in particular, I gratefully acknowledge.

I owe a great debt of gratitude to my beloved Principal, Prof. N.C.Charantimath, S.K.Arts College and H.S.K.Science Institute, Hubli, who left for his heavenly abode a few days before the completion of this work, and with whose help and recommendation, my study leave was granted. I am thankful to the U.G.C. for their financial help and to the Director, Collegiate Education, Government of Karnataka, for granting me study leave for 3 years and to the management of K.L.E. Society, Belgaum, for permitting me to avail myself of the opportunity afforded by the fellowship.

In the course of my work on the thesis, I have received help and co-operation from my co-research-fellows and friends like Shri S.I.Hugar and Dr. N.C. Vijayaraj who made maps available to me, to Dr.D.A.Joshi, for the help offered whenever I asked for, and to Mr. Purushothama who assisted me in proof reading the typescript. I express my sincere thanks to all of them.

Shri O.G.Patil, a close friend of mine, provided not only the constant support and encouragement but also took interest in looking after my personal work when I was away on study leave. I am grateful to him.

My thanks are due to Shri A.V.Prajapati for his diligent typing..

I need not stress on the silent contribution of members of my family towards the successful completion of my thesis.

R. V. DADIBHAVI