

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

After an intensive period of nearly six years, today is the day: writing this note of thanks is the finishing touch on my thesis. It has been a period of intense learning for me, not only in the scientific arena but also on a personal level. I would like to reflect on the people who have supported and helped me so much throughout this period.

Firstly, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my advisor Prof. Rajesh Singh for the continuous support of my Ph.D. study and related research. The door to his office was always open whenever I ran into a trouble spot or had a question about my research or writing. I appreciate him for giving his students the freedom to think and apply our research fantasies on the bench. I am really grateful to him for being kind to understand my situation, especially during the last year of my tenure and giving me the flexibility to work at a convenient time, and allowing me to write a thesis from home. I am fortunate to work under his guidance and have him as the mentor of my Ph.D.

Besides my advisor, I would like to thank my first research guide Dr. Nitin Damle and Dr. Indraneel Ghosh for inculcating research interest and confidence in me. Thank you is a small word to express my gratitude to my previous guide and mentor. He has not only encouraged me to research and perform well but he has seeded the values of self-responsibility, hard work, discipline, and dutifulness toward the work in me. He has built a strong foundation for a good and ethical researcher that will last forever.

*I would also like to thank the rest of my doctoral committee members: Prof. Rasheedunnisa Begum, Prof. Sarita Gupta, and the Late Dr. Vihas Vasu for their insightful comments and encouragement, but also for the hard question which incited me to widen my research from various perspectives.
