

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The completion of my thesis marks the end of a challenging stage. My research journey was strengthened by the support of some amazing individuals, each of whom contributed something special to the journey. With a profound sense of thankfulness and appreciation, I would like to take this opportunity to remember them and express my deepest and sincere gratitude.

I express my sincere gratitude to my mentor Prof. Pushpa Robin. I am grateful to her for giving me the opportunity to work in her lab. I am thankful for her trust in me and giving me independence to think, plan and execute experiments. She was a role model for me being a perfect lady balancing her professional and family life. Being a lady, she understood my difficulties and supported me throughout my doctoral studies. Her laid-back demeanour was incredibly helpful and put me at ease. Her support, advice and encouragement have contributed towards shaping of my research career.

I am grateful to Prof. Vijay Kumar Srivastava, Vice-Chancellor, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Vadodara for the opportunity to work in this prestigious institution. I am also obliged to Prof. Haribhai Kataria, Dean, Faculty of Science. I am thankful to Prof. C. Ratnaprabha, Head, Dept. of Biochemistry for her constant support during my Ph.D. tenure and providing infrastructural and instrumental facilities to carry out my research work.

Words cannot describe how grateful I am, to my doctoral committee members, Prof. Rajesh Singh and Dr. Padmanabhi Nagar for sparing their valuable time, feedback and guidance. Without their guidance, suggestions and research aide this work might not have reach upto it completion. Their passion for science and approachability for discussions is inspirational.

My sincere thanks to Dr. Manan Raval (Head, RPCP, Charusat University) for allowing me to work at his prestigious university and for being always ready to solve my research queries. I am thankful to Mr. Nishit Patel for chromatography related experiments. I am thankful to Forest Officer, Waghai Botanical Garden to permit for plant collection without which my work might not have initiated.

I extend my sincere thanks to Prof. Sarita Gupta and Dr. Laxmi Nampoorthi for their help and suggestions during mammary tumor animal model experiments. I am also grateful to Sun-pharmaceuticals for providing Sprague Dawley Rats. But unfortunately this work was not pursued further due to the pandemic.

I am thankful to Prof. S. R. Acharya, Dr. Sanjeev Upadhyay, Dr. Ravi Vijayvargia, Dr. Jayshree Pohnerkar, Dr. Devesh Suthar, Prof. G. Naresh Kumar, Prof. Rasheedunnisa Begum for their kind support and encouragement throughout my PhD tenure. I specially thank all the non-teaching staff of the department, for their constant help in the administrative work during my PhD tenure. I am thankful to animal house staff- Rameshbhai, Vijaybhai and Narayanbhai. Sincere thanks to Faculty workshop staff- Piyushbhai, Davebhai, Anarebhai and chandubhai for their help as and when required.

I am very thankful to PRL members - Sureshbhai, Tabassum, Hemant Patadia, Parth, Amruta, Bhanu and Kanchan. I am thankful to my M.Sc. students- Jay, Bhargav, Apeksha, Shailja, Jayvadan, Apurva, Jay Nimavat, Pooja, Devanshi, Jasmine, Prachi, Itisha, Aditi, Vrunda, and internship students of lab Devarshi, Shruti, Archi, Krupa and Anushka. I am thankful to all my M.Sc. students for all their help, fun, support and maintaining a cheerful lab environment. I am also thankful to lab dissertation students- Ritu, Palak, Manish, Disha, Aishwarya, Fuzail, Kiran and Neha.

A very special word of gratitude to Arpi (friend-roomie-colleague) standing with me through my worst days and guiding me in my research work. Thank you for your love, support and care throughout our hostel life. You have been an inspiration to me always. I can never forget those shoppings, outings, dinners and ofcourse, your special dishes! I will always cherish the happy moments we gathered during the Ph.D journey and counting on more to our eternal friendship.

I am highly grateful to Shivani (Bhaibandh), Gurprit and Kanchan for your enduring friendship. I am thankful to you for being there always for me, listening patiently to my queries and helping out with my problems to your best. I will always relish those special chai-sessions and discussions. I look forward to many wonderful years beyond.

I thank to the past and present research scholars of the department- Radha, Nirja, Ujjawal, Mala, Shah Nawaz, Kritarth, Milton, Khyati, Dhruv, Mitul, Gaurav, Komal, Abhay, Akhilesh, Ankita, Sandeep, Megha, Raju, Nishant, Anjali, Minal, Jyoti, Nisha, Shani and Shatakshi and all other research scholars of department.

I am thankful to all Ph.D. hostelites- Harshita, Nikita (my current room-mate), Krishna and Rifat and Divya. A special thanks to Mridu (friend cum younger sister to me) being always there for me to cheer me up and helping in all possible ways she can. I am highly grateful to all, making hostel life exciting and worth living especially post-covid times. I will miss all the parties, fun, gossips and ofcourse our shopping discussions!

The ability to express my gratitude in words would be inadequate for my husband, Mr. Aravindakshan Nair, without whom this thesis would have only been a dream. I am indebted to him for his constant assistance, encouragement, guidance and the tremendous support. He has confidence in me, even when I doubt myself. He changed my perception towards many things in life and is my idol for patience and sacrifice. He has always supported and encouraged me to pursue my dreams and take my decisions independently without any undue pressure. He always encouraged me through the difficult time during my research and motivated me to move on confidently.

Words are not enough to thank my son, Master Dhyey Nair. His unconditional support and love were the motivational factor for me. I will always remain indebted to him to allow me to pursue my studies at the cost of his happiness and childhood days. I am thankful to God for giving me such a mature, understanding and loving kid. He is an inspiration to look forward to the future my life beholds. Their love was my strength which provide me with the ability to withstand any situations to complete my studies.

I am extremely indebted to my parents Dr. Shyamal Purani and Mrs. Nirmala Purani. I am thankful to them for inculcating the attributes of empathy, positivity, tolerance and patience in me which was helpful during the stressful days. I would have not achieved anything without your eternal love and support. I am thankful to my siblings Dipti, Ketki, Charul, Rina, Ashish, Rutvik and my brother-in-laws and sister-in-laws for providing me the strength to complete my studies.

I express my gratitude to my parents-in-law Mr. Vijay Nair and Mrs. Nalini Nair for being extremely supportive, caring, loving and being my parents in real sense. I am thankful to them to allow me to complete my doctoral study. I am thankful to family members Vinod, Disha, and Vikas for their understanding and support during my Ph.D tenure.

There are people who are not present physically with you but their words are the guiding light which enlightens your path towards your destiny. Their words become the power which encourages you during moments of difficulty. I am thankful to the beautiful souls of my life who are now residing in heavenly abode.

Last but not the least, I thank almighty God for being a hidden faith and force to accomplish my goals, without his blessings I would have not able to reach here.

Sejal Purani
