“Lord Śiva says, those who listen to this story with attentively are absolved all sins of thought, action and speech pilgrimages to shrines and other means of self-purification, detachment. Perfection in wisdom, various works of religious merit, vows and charity, restraint and self-control, prayer, penance, manifold sacrifices, compassions towards all living beings, service to the Brahmanas and teachers, learning, modesty and discrimination. O Bhavani, (Pārvatī), all these expedients that the Vedas have prescribed, have but one reward devotion to Harī and this devotion to Lord Raghunātha Śrī Rāma which is described in the Vedas is attained rarely by the distinguished person and again, that too, by the grace of Lord Śrī Rāma.”
