

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I wish to record my deep sense of gratitude to the following who in their own ways encouraged, helped and guided me in my work. But for their pat, smile, nod of approval and criticism this work would not have seen the light of the day. In particular, I wish to say a big thank you -

To my guide and teacher, Dr. Pramod Kumar, Professor and Head of the P.G.Department of Psychology, Sardar Patel University, Vallabh Vidya Nagar.

To Dr.J.B.Patel and other members of the staff of the Department of Psychology, Sardar Patel University, Vallabh Vidya Nagar. I enjoyed the stimulating discussions I had with them.

To Dr.N.S.Pathak, Dr.Manjuli Gon, Dr.I.D.Bhatt and other members of the staff at the Department of Psychology, M.S.University of Baroda. I enjoyed their criticisms, encouragement and sympathetic approach.

To Professor A.K.Sen, Head of the Psychology Department, University of Delhi, Delhi, for discussing my research work.

To the Computer Centre at Vallabh Vidya Nagar for the help in statistical work of the present study.

To Shri Prakash Pethe for assistance in design of graphical presentation of the results.

To Mr Arvind Kharwa for graciously loaning me his Facit typewriter for my typing work.

To the management of the Bank of Baroda, and other Banks for allowing me to conduct my interviews. This has been a big encouragement to me.

To the 360 respondents who came out of their proverbial feminine reserve and responded to my test administration, as also discussed their feelings while at work.

To Mrs.Trivedi, Mrs.Amin and other members of the staff at the University Library, Baroda, as also the staff at the University Library, Vallabh Vidya Nagar, for the facilities extended to me for the library work; and

To numerous friends, both in office and outside, who talked to me about their problems in working life and how they groped and coped with them. This gave me both an insider's and outsider's view of their problems relating to their working life in and outside banks.
