

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Albert Schweitzer says that each of us owes deepest thanks to those who have kindled the light in us. It is but a privilege to come to a milestone, to reflect upon the journey so far. For me this endeavour was entwined with the biggest tempest in my life. It was only due to the continuous support of all the special people mentioned here, I could write this page. I give all honour and glory to my God for this chance to conduct a study and bring it to a completion.

Dr. R.G. Kothari – Dean, Faculty of Education and Psychology, Head, CASE, Baroda, my guide, deserves highest appreciation for being very patient. His rare ability to draw out the best in me without any coercion, is unparalleled. The uncompromising inclination towards quality and precision, however, did not make him unyielding. His belief and expectation rejuvenated my spirits in the worst of the times. He is known for his scholarship, humour and ability to think on his feet. His faith and confidence in me helped me to raise my self-worth. I thank him for guiding me at my convenience. Mark Twain rightly said that the really great, make you feel that you too can become great.

My thanks to my late parents for having shown me the path of truth, sincerity and humility. Their ideals are my beacons. Their physical absence does not fade the colours of fond memories. I thank my sister for giving me advice and seeing me through the dark alleys of the study. Thanks for being patient with me.

Dr. G.C. Pradhan – Reader, N.I.E., Goa, an erudite scholar, self-effacing and unpretentious. His unique ability to simplify any situation, gave required the impetus to my study. His willingness to render help under any circumstance deserves special mention. I thank him for offering his expertise at crucial junctures of the study. Dr. S. Roy, retired, ex-head, CASE, Baroda, has to be distinctively thanked for his valuable suggestions and most of all for the title of the present study.

All the students who underwent the testing procedures at different stages of the study are hereby being thanked. Thanks also to all the teachers who helped me in the administration of the tests. Thanks to all school headmasters for granting permission to administer the tests. Special thanks to all the cases in my case study. Especially, for their deep love and sincerity. A special mention about all the families of the cases for their support and affection.

My alma mater CASE, Baroda, is being specially thanked for its scholarly edifice which inspired me to take up a study like this. It was within its portals that ideas took birth and created history. I shall be eternally thankful to all the forerunners at CASE for having created a solace for researchers in education. All the researchers at CASE, Baroda, are being thanked for their suggestions.

G.V.M. College of Education, Ponda, Goa needs to be specially thanked for all the co-operation extended to me. I thank the Principal, Dr. Louis Vernal for his encouragement and support. My colleagues, Dr. Paily, Mr. Ganesh Naik, Mr. Sunil Kumar deserve thanks for sharing my research discussions. Mr. Allen Abreo, also my colleague, deserves thanks for his support and giving his expertise for tool construction. Mrs. D. Vernal – Co-ordinator extension services, G.V.M. College of Education is also being thanked for offering her language expertise. A very special thanks to all the twenty teachers for giving vociferous, enthusiastic interviews and wishing me good luck,

Giving the document form and style was the effort of Mr. Sudhir Parsekar and Mr. and Mrs. Pankaj Rana. It was their expertise with computer operations and unbelievable speed and accuracy that put me at ease. I owe my sincere thanks to all of them, for their enthusiasm and patience, for typing my documents in record time. There were some of my students who helped me during data analysis. I thank them for their support and help, especially Vanita Naik, Shubadha Bhende, Sarojini Naik,

All the researchers whose studies helped me to justify, to validate my study, inspired me to incorporate their ideas are being deeply thanked. Dr. Rajaganeshan, Head of the Department of Education, University of Madras, Dr. Oommen, Head of the Department, Zoology, Kerala University are being thanked for their constant encouragement and timely reminders.

Among the many events that I enjoyed during the compilation, this acknowledgement was one eagerly awaited.
