

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am thankful to the Department of History of The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda for this moment of my life. I did my M.A. and M. Phil from the Department and was given opportunity to pursue my research for the Ph.D. degree. I am thankful to all the faculty members for their teaching, academic orientation, encouragement & kindness all through my presence in the department.

I offer my sincerest gratitude to my supervisor, Dr. Rajkumar Hans, who has supported me throughout my thesis with his patience and knowledge whilst allowing me the room to work in my own way. One could not have wished for a better or friendlier supervisor. His perpetual energy and enthusiasm in research had motivated all his students including me. In addition, he was always accessible and willing to help his students with their research. As a result, research life became smooth and rewarding for me.

I am deeply indebted to the staffs of the Centenary Methodist Church, Vadodara; Central Archives, Vadodara; Methodist Church in India Archives at Leonard Theological College, Jabalpur; Methodist Bible Seminary, Vasad; Maharashtra State Archives, Mumbai; Gujarat United School of Theology (G.U.S.T.) Archives, Ahmadabad and United Theological College Bangalore for kindly allowing me access to their collection and facilitating photo copies in difficult situations. In Leonard Theological College, Jabalpur, the Principal Rev. Richard Roger & all the staff had been extraordinarily helpful.

Rev. Nimrod Christian, Dr.Rev.Samson Parekh, Rev.Kirit Parmar, Rev. Ravikant Master, Dr.Rev. Dr. Joel Kant, Rev. Simon Brenard, Rev. P.T. Christian, Rev. Immanuel Kant and Rev. Samuel Suwartik have been of immense help in terms of encouragement and discourse.

I am thankful to all the personalities for helping me with their interviews and sharing their personal experiences which was an enlightening experience for me .

Mr.sunil Masih was like a companion on every step in this first journey of research, despite not associated with History discipline. Sunil patiently went through the drafts of my chapters offering his suggestions on the same . He shared with me much of the stress & strain associated with the writing of the dissertation & has been a constant source of inspiration, encouragement & support.

My Son Anurag always enthused me with new spirit by his playfulness and fun.

My deepest gratitude goes to my family for their unflagging love and support through out my life. This dissertation could have simply been impossible without them. They have always posed immense faith in me and have been extremely supportive throughout my research work. Their intimate association with my academic efforts has been remarkable during the journey of my research. I am indebted to my father, Mr. Ratikumar Macwan, for his care and love. He had never complained in spite of all the hardships in his life. Although he is no longer with us, he is forever remembered. I am sure he shares our joys and happiness even in his absence. I cannot ask more from my mother, Floraben Macwan as she is simply perfect. I have no suitable words that can fully describe her everlasting love to me. I remember her constant support when I encountered difficulties. I am also thankful to Mr. Jitendra Singh , Akash Singh & Vikrant Singh for offering advice and suggestions whenever I need them. My special thanks to my brother Siddharth Macwan for actively supporting me in my determination to find and realize my potential & to make this contribution to our world.

My loving thanks to my friend Anju for her constant encouragement during the progress of the work.

Most of all thanks to God the Divine who continues to make the impossible – possible.
