I owe a large debt of gratitude to Prof. N.S.Pathak, Dean, Faculty of Education and Psychology and former Head, Department of Psychology of the M.S.University of Baroda, for his valuable guidance at every stage in conducting this investigation. I am also thankful to Prof. N.S.Pathak for having initiated and imbibed in me the interest in Research Methodology. But for him, I would not have embarked on the statistical analyses that are used in this study.

I wish to record my gratitude to my colleagues, especially, Prof.(Ms) Gon, Head; Dr.R.K.Parlikar and Dr.I.D.Bhatt of the Department of Psychology for their constant support, help and encouragement.

I also wish to express my sincere thanks to all the students who served as the respondents for this investigation. I am indebted to them for their cooperation and especially for their suggestions. My sincere thanks are due to my Consumer Psychology students, whose inquisitiveness led me to take up this investigation and also all other students who assisted me in collecting data from the University Hostels.
