

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The author is indebted to Dr. L.S. Chamyal for his sustained guidance, help and encouragement at all stages of the present study. She is also indebted to Prof. S.J. Desai, Head of Geology Department, for his encouragement and the facilities provided during the course of work.

She is highly grateful to Prof. S.S. Merh, for his outstanding support, untiring help and encouragement all throughout her studies. She acknowledges her sincere gratitude to Prof. K.S. Valdiya, Department of Geology, Kumaun University, Nainital and Dr. V.C. Thakur, Director, W.I.H.G., Dehradun for their keen interest in the progress of the work and encouragement.

Thanks are due to Dr. T.N. Jowhar, W.I.H.G., Dehradun for his help in the study of feldspars and geothermometry. Mr. N.K. Saini of W.I.H.G., Dehradun, Dr. P.K. Govil, Shri R. Natarajan and Dr. V. Balaram of N.G.R.I., Hyderabad, deserve author's sincere acknowledgement for helping her in the various geochemical analyses with the help of XRF, EPMA and ICP-MS. Grateful thanks are due to Dr. D.C. Mangai, Asstt. Director (Reservoir), O.N.G.C., Baroda for his help, guidance and fruitful discussions.

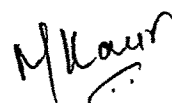

The author is grateful to all the staff members of the Department of Geology, M.S. University for varied assistance during this study. The support of friends and colleagues throughout the course of study is thankfully acknowledged. Especially, Mr. V. Sridhar, Mr. Deepak Maurya, Mr. Javed Malik and Miss Lata Nair who not only provided constant help but also cheered her up in moments of despair and anxiety.

The author would be failing in her duty if she does not thank Shri Atul Patel and Shri Samir Patel for excellent word processing of the thesis.

The help received from Shri Kishor Makwana and Shri Kundan Singh in the department and field respectively, is duly acknowledged.

She would also like to place on record the encouragement, support and affection bestowed on her by her family members and specially her husband Capt. Kulwant Singh who patiently endured her absence and encouraged her to complete her thesis.

Lastly, she wishes to acknowledge the financial assistance provided by the Wadia Institute of Himalayan Geology, Dehradun, throughout the period of her investigation.
