

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

On this momentous occasion of submission of my Ph.D. thesis first and foremost, I extend my deepest gratitude to God, for his showers of blessings throughout my research endeavors which have enabled me to reach this significant life milestone.

I deem it as an honour of profound pride and privilege to extend my indebtedness to my Guide, Dr. Sarjoo Patel, Assistant Professor, Department of Family and Community Resource Management, Faculty of Family and Community Sciences, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Vadodara for devoting her valuable time, expert guidance, unwavering support and dedication throughout the research. Without her support and mentorship, it would not have been possible. Her expertise, dedication, and encouragement have greatly contributed to my growth and success. I want to express my deepest appreciation for her support and mentorship. Her guidance has been instrumental in shaping my journey.

Sincere regards to Prof. Uma Iyer, (I/C Head, FCRM Department and Dean) and Prof. Maneesha Shukul (Ex. Head, FCRM Department) for their support, guidance and valuable suggestions.

I am extremely thankful to Ms. Fatema Dahodwala for her support and helping me in my data collection and training program. Special thanks to Dr. Khyati Trivedi for her constant help, support and valuable suggestions at various stages of research. I would also like to thank Dr. Vashima Veerkumar, Ms. Himani Shah and Ms. Neha Rathore for their help and support. I extend my thanks to Ms. Pooja Panchal who helped me in preparation of modules.

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to my parents Mrs. Bhagirathi and Mr. Bhuwan Chandra with special regards. It would not have been possible without their support and trust in me. They have stood like a pillar and source of inspiration during the entire journey. I extend gratitude to my brother Mr. Neeraj Chandra, all my family members and lovely friends for their support, candid suggestions and unforgettable help which offered me the rays of hope in every second of my study.

No words seem enough to express my whole hearted gratitude to my beloved husband Mr. Akhilesh Kumar for motivating, understanding, supporting and standing beside me during my research. This effort would not have been done without his patience, sacrifice, and moral support. He has been the source of motivation for me at every stage with positivity and enthusiasm. Thank you for giving me strength, encouragement, constant inspiration, love and support to accomplish great tasks in life.

I am indebted to my father in-law, Shri. Rajesh Kumar, my mother in-law, Smt. Rajeshwari Devi, my brother in-law Mr. Alok Kumar and sister in-law Mrs. Deepa for their encouragement, blessings, and unwavering assistance.

I extend my thanks to all the teaching staff of Family and Community Resource Management for their constant support and valuable feedback. I express thanks to Mr. Ishwarbhai Patel, Mr. Robinbhai Christian and all the non-teaching staff for their cooperation in issuing thesis, books and for their help during my research work.

I extend my most sincere thanks to all the respondents who cooperated with their open responses and correct information. Special thanks to the General Manager and all the staff of Suba Elite, Vadodara and Furat International for their cooperation during the module preparation.

Last, but not the least, I wish to endorse my sincere thanks to all those who helped me, directly or indirectly, during my research work.
