

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I take up this opportunity to document my deep sense of gratitude and reverence to my parents, my guide, my brother, sister and sister-in-law for their eternal support in all aspects of my life.

I would like to thank and appreciate the inputs of all my well-wishers for their encouragement, guidance and support at every nook and corner of the puzzling pathways to attain my dreams

Dr Shagufa Kapadia, my guide, my pillar of strength constantly supporting me in my tasks. She has always been a motivating force in all my academic endeavors. I express my gratitude for her inputs in helping me conceptualize the research and present it in the current form. She has been there for me, whenever I needed her!

Dr. Indira Mallya, Reader, Department of Human Development and Family Studies for being a constant source of encouragement in my work. Her guidance and suggestions helped me grow further.

Dr. TK Sundari Ravindran. Honorary Professor, Achutha Menon Center for Health Science Studies, Thiruvananthapuram, Ms. Renu Khanna from SAHAJ, Baroda, Ms. Urvi Shah from Population Research Center, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda and Dr. Sunita Bandewar, from CEHAT, Pune for helping me build insights into the gendered aspects of the Research and for providing rich inputs in the methodology section by sharing their experienced wisdom and for providing inputs in the formation of the tool and the process of interviewing as well Ms. Renu Khanna and Ms. Urvi Shah for also helping me build an ethically sound research.

My friend Falguni Maniar to support me in various capacities towards completing this study

Prof. Prerna Mohite, Dean, Faculty of Home Science who has always acted as the pillar of support, encouraging students to attain heights in their lives.

Prof. Parul Dave, former Head Department of Human Development and Family Studies for always appreciating my efforts thus, boosting my morale.

Dr. Sangeeta Chaudhary, Lecturer, Department of Human Development and Family Studies, for her enthusiastic support and cheerful help in proof reading my work.

Dr. Veena Mulgaonkar, Sujeevan Trust. Mumbai for discussing her research with me and thus broadening my horizon on social aspects of infertility within a context.

Dr. Irina Todorova, Health Psychology Research Center and Kotzeva, Tatyana, Bulgarian Academy of Sciences for her inputs in my research at the initial stage of conceptualization and for forwarding relevant review material on the internet.

Dr Catherine Riessman, Boston College, Boston, US, for sending publications of her work on infertility in India.

The Department of Human Development and Family Studies faculty members and colleagues for their valuable suggestions during the seminars that helped shape the present research.

Mukeshbhai Gajjar, Technical Assistant, Department of Human Development and Family Studies for his technical support during the seminars, as well as his support in smoothening the correspondence with the faculty.

My family Pratapkaka, Minakaki, Vishal and Luv for their love, cooperation and encouragement.

Special thanks to all the doctors who have provided inputs, in various capacities in the research and most important of all, the participants without whose consent the research would never have been possible.