

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The investigator most gratefully acknowledges her guide and counsellor Dr. (Mrs.) Kamala Srinivasan, Professor and Head, Department of Home Management, Faculty of Home Science, M.S. University of Baroda, for the valuable guidance, strong support and continuous motivation and encouragement rendered throughout the tenure of the study. The utmost co-operation and patience shown by her at every stage were also instrumental in completion of this endeavour.

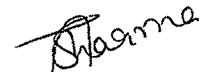

It is a pleasure to acknowledge the timely help rendered by Dr. (Ms.) Salilesh Darshan, Associate Professor of Sociology and Dr. Deepak Grover, Associate Professor of Statistics, Haryana Agricultural University, Hisar.

My sincere and profound thanks are due to Mr. S. Balwant, Prop., Ajanta Books International, for his help in printing of the interview schedules. Thanks are also due to Mr. K. K. Bansal Centre of Information Technology, for his assistance in computer analysis of the data. The neat and deft typing by the persons at Midea-Point is also gratefully acknowledged.

Affectionate behaviour and assistance received from the sample respondents and local leaders of the sample villages is fondly remembered and deeply appreciated.

The investigator owes a debt of gratitude to all her family members especially to her aunts Ms. Chand and Puran Sharma and uncle Mr. Devraj Chopra for their help during the course of carrying out this study. I am thankful to my brother-in-law, Mr. Kanwal Sethi and niece Ms. Nikki Sethi for their help constant support and encouragement through out the tenure of this study.

Appreciation is extended to all my friends, especially Ms. Sangita Patel, Ms. Dimple Arora, Ms. Mukta Varma, Ms. Mita Das and Ms. Monalisa Das for their help and moral support. I feel it a pleasure to record my appreciation for my friend and roommate Ms. Chandana Ghosh for her affectionate company, help and constant support. They also made my stay at Baroda pleasant and memorable.
