“Rome was not built in a day”. So is the life or a cherished dream. At this glorious moment of fulfilment of my cherished dream, I am flooded with mixed sentiments of elation, satisfaction, relaxation of having completed an endeavour and also sorrow of leaving my dearest alma mater –Pharmacy Department, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda. The task of research always passes through intricacies and it would not have been a successful outcome without inspiration, motivation, patience, perseverance, and concrete support in terms of finance, resources, good wishes and prayers. It was never an easy task however, the bounties of positive vibrations I received from various domains, enabled me achieve my nurtured and cherished dream of completing doctoral studies. I am indeed falling short of words to express my feelings of gratitude and satisfaction to all those who supported and helped me. I am heartily gratified to:

Honorable Sir Sayajirao Gaekwad, the founder of The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, for establishing such a wonderful and multidisciplinary education foundation.

Pharmacy Department, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, which I consider to be my second home that groomed me from graduate to post graduate and post graduate to PhD research fellow and even a lecturer.

My mentor and esteemed guide, Dr. Ambikanandan Misra, Professor in Pharmaceutics, Pharmacy Department, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda for his privileged guidance, freedom to explore my ideas, constant encouragement, timely impetus, requisite facilities, meticulous attention, tacit emotional and mental support whenever I needed throughout the course of this work. I am privileged to work under his guidance and improve my intellectual and managing skills. I am always proud and grateful to be his student. It had always been my dream since completion of my M.Pharm to work under his able guidance for my doctoral studies and at this moment, I feel extremely elated for my dream that has come true so pleasantly. I would always look forward to work with him in future, if Almighty blesses me with such golden opportunity.

Dr. M.R. Yadav Head and Professor, Pharmacy Department, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda for providing me the necessary facilities for the research work.

Dr. R. Balaraman, Professor in Pharmacology, Dr. S.H. Mishra, Professor in Herbal Drug Technology, Dr. R.S.R. Murthy, Professor in Pharmaceutics, Dr. (Mrs.) Rajani Giridhar, Professor in Pharmaceutical Chemistry, Dr. (Mrs.) K.K. Sawant, Professor in Pharmaceutics, Dr. (Mrs.) S.J. Rajput, Professor in Pharmaceutical Quality Assurance and Dr. RC Mashru, Reader of Pharmaceutical Quality Assurance, Pharmacy Department, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda for their invaluable support during the research work. I would always cherish those grand moments that I shared with them not only as a research scholar but also as a lecturer in the department due to which I started feeling so strongly attached to this department. I cannot think of myself without it.

I heartily thank Smt. Hasumatiben Langhaliya, Smt. Heenaben Choksi, Smt. Vaishali.S. Patel for their kind help, co operation and streamlining the administrative aspects.

Dr. Naazneen Surti, Baroda College of Pharmacy for her extremely kind help in reviewing papers and constructive suggestions, for sparing time out of her hectic schedule at home and workplace just to help me with preparation of my research papers that accelerated the process of completing my doctoral studies.

My loving parents-Mrs. Daksha R. Shah and Dr. Ravindra B. Shah for providing me everything physically, mentally, economically and above all emotionally. I cannot think of this venture without their blessings and tender care that they have bestowed upon me. My affectionate gratitude to my revered parents, for their unconditional love, constant inspiration and tacit patience for being the backbone for achievement of this Herculean task.

My younger brother Chinmay, whose help I am seeking till this last moment of thesis submission. His wonderful knowledge of computers and his strong sentiments have worked wonders for me.

Words are scarce to express my heartfelt thanks to Dr. L.F. Rabari, Retd. Professor of Chemistry, Vallabh Vidyanagar for not only kindly providing me with accommodation at Vallabh Vidyanagar that only facilitated my thesis writing, but also for his scholarly suggestions and above all his extremely humane nature and sublime thoughts that always got me out of doldrums and dilemma that I faced during thesis writing. I will be always grateful to his extremely kind gesture of providing me with accommodation, treating me as his family member and his evergreen suggestions that any doctoral students should always remember. I am forever indebted to him for his kind and caring treatment.

My cousin-Nilesh Mehta and his wife Rupa for their extremely loving and caring treatment during my stay at Mumbai for cell line studies. I am forever indebted to them for what they have done for me.

Veenamasi and Jeetumasa for motivation, courage and positive approach that cleared the clouds of frustration that I face many times.

Mr. Himanshu Agrawal, Ms.K.Florence for technical discussion, for receiving and taking care of my chemicals during my duty hours as a lecturer at Pharmacy Department, Kalabhavan and above all for their nice, refreshing company.
