

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Work on the thesis entitled "Small Urban Centres in South Gujarat during the Nineteenth Century" could take shape only through the help from several quarters. It is possible to list only a few of them.

I would like to express my gratitude to Prof. R. J. Shah, my Research Supervisor, Head of the Department of History, Faculty of Arts, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, who gave me opportunity to work on this topic under his meticulous supervision.

I do not have enough words to express my thanks to Dr. Adhya Bharti Saxena, Lecturer, Department of History, Faculty of Arts, for her sincere involvement in my work.

I cannot forget the generous support from His Highness Sri Digvirendrasingji, Ex-Maharaja of Bansda and His Highness Sri Dharmendrasingji, Ex-Maharaja of Dharampur, Who provided valuable source material from their personal collection and unforgettable hospitality during my visits to their palaces.

Dr. Raj Kumar Hans, Reader, Department of History, Faculty of Arts, helped me at various points of time when I was completely in despair regarding the availability of source material.

I received support from other scholars in reconstructing the discussion. As gratitude I name the following: Prof. Satish Chandra, Prof. M. J. Mehta, Prof. Shireen Mehta, Prof. Indu Banga, and Prof. Mariam Dossal.

I am indeed indebted to all the teachers of the Department of History, Faculty of Arts, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, who gave me constant support and encouragement in my work.

Most of the research work for this thesis had been carried out at Maharashtra State Archives; Fort Library, Asiatic Society Library, Mumbai; Poona Archives, Pune; Central Record Office, Vadodara; Smt. Hansa Mehta Library; Central Library, Mandvi, Vadodara; M.K. Amin College Library, Padra; Centre for Social Science Library, South Gujarat University Library, Andrews Library, Surat; Shivaji Library, Vyara; Sayaji Library and Mehraji Rana Library, Navsari; Libraries at Bilimora, Gandevi, Bansda, Dharampur and Chikhli. I am thankful to the staff of all these places.

I cannot forget the generous support from Dr. N. K. Dakorwala, Reader, Department of English, Faculty of Arts, The M. S. University of Baroda for editing the manuscript of the thesis.

I also express my thanks to Mr. Sinarkerbhai and Sanjaybhai, Cartographers, Geography Department, Faculty of Science, The M. S. University of Baroda for preparing the maps.

I am indebted to the Indian Council of Historical Research, New Delhi for supporting this project financially by offering me a Doctoral Research Fellowship for two years and the Indian Council of Social Science Research, Mumbai, for providing financial assistance for my visits to Mumbai. I am sincerely grateful to them.

I am indebted to my parents; uncles- M. N. Maurya and R. N. Maurya, sisters- Nadini, Premila, Jyoti and Ankini, brothers- Parikshit, Tej, Milind, Dwijen and the other members of my family for their unconditional love and constant support. I express my sincere thanks to Baby didi, Dr. Aruna Awasthi, Dr. Sarah Ahmed, Dr. Sudhir Bhan, Shakuntala Hans, Jimmy and my friends- Dhaval, Hardeep, Bharat, Kishore, Dilip, Kirit, and hostel friends for help in times of adversity.
