

LIST OF TABLES

Table No.	List of Tables	Page No.
1.1	The Indian Diaspora	17
1	Statistics of respondents caste	59
2	Statistics of respondents religion	60
3	Statistics of respondents age	61
4	Statistics of respondents education	62
5	Statistics of respondents gender	63
6	Statistics of respondents type of residence	64
7	Statistics of respondents occupation	65
8	Statistics of respondents financial Status	66
9	The type of family respondents live in	69
10	Category under which migration took place	71
11	Means adopted for migration	72
12	Purpose of migration	73
13	Reason for selecting England/America/Canada for migration	74
14	Respondents experience of migration	76
15	Reason for being happy in migrated country- adequate earning	77
16	Reason for being happy in migrated country- satisfied with job	78
17	Reason for being happy in migrated country- better living conditions	79
18	Reason for being happy in migrated country – Better educational avenues for children	80
19	Reason for being happy in migrated country – Less of social pressure	81
20	Reason for being happy in migrated country – better public services	82
21	Reason for being happy in migrated country – Community centres	83
22	Reason for being happy in migrated country – can monetarily help family in India	84
23	Reason for being happy in migrated country – No problem of racism/ ethnic discrimination	85
24	Respondents marital status	86
25	Respondents having children	86
26	Response on decision made by respondents to migrate – was that a right decision	87
27	Response on respondents citizenship of migrated country	87
28	Respondents intended to become citizen and permanently settle in migrated country	87

LIST OF TABLES

Table No.	List of Tables	Page No.
29	Respondents social position in host country	89
30	Respondents attending religious & community meetings in host country	90
31	Frequency of attending religious & community meetings in host country by respondents	91
32	Respondents socio-cultural life confined to the narrow circles of relatives, regional and religious groups of Indian origin in host country	92
33	Respondents following religious rites and rituals during marriage	93
34	Respondents believing in cultural tradition like "Kanyadan" in the form of Dowry during marriage	94
35	Respondents believing in caste belongingness	95
36	Respondents actively participating in caste association	96
37	Respondents' view on ideal type of family	97
38	Respondents believing in ideals and values of Hindu religion	98
39	Respondents believing in caste endogamy	99
40	Respondents holding ancestral property in native country	100
41	Respondents purchased residential property in home country	101
42	Respondents visiting home country to meet family, relatives and for attending social occasions	102
43	Respondents frequency of visiting home country	103
44	Respondents regularly sending remittance to family in home country	104
45	Respondents sending financial support to relatives and caste fellow in home country at the time of their need	105
46	Respondents financial support for social purpose or for village development in home region	106
47	Respondents migration affecting the social and cultural aspect of your family in host country	107
48	Migration influencing socio- cultural aspects of marriage with respect to traditional dimensions	108
49	Migration influencing socio- cultural aspects of family with respect to traditional dimensions	109
50	Migration influencing intimacy between husband- wife with respect to traditional interpersonal relations	110
51	Migration influencing intimacy between parents- children with respect to traditional interpersonal relations	111
52	Migration influencing intimacy between brother- sister with respect to traditional interpersonal relations	112
53	Migration influencing intimacy between brother- sister with respect to traditional interpersonal relations	113

LIST OF TABLES

Table No.	List of Tables	Page No.
54	Migration influencing socio- cultural aspect of dressing pattern with respect to traditional dimension	114
55	Migration influencing socio- cultural aspect of language with respect to traditional dimension	115
56	Migration influencing socio- cultural aspect of health patterns with respect to traditional dimension	116
57	Migration influencing socio- cultural aspect of occupation with respect to traditional dimension	117
58	Migration influencing socio- cultural aspect of status with respect to traditional dimension	118
59	Migration influencing socio- cultural aspect of celebration pattern of festivals with respect to traditional institutions	119
60	Migration influencing socio- cultural aspect of celebration of various festivals with respect to traditional institutions	120
61	Migration influencing socio- cultural aspect of food habits (patterns) with respect to traditional institutions	121
62	Migration influencing socio- cultural aspect of religion with respect to traditional institutions	122
63	Monetary usefulness of migrant to the family in India	124
64	Financial support sent by migrant affecting the purchasing habits of relatives in India	125
65	Frequency of communication of Diaspora with relatives and friends in India	127
66	Mode of communication of Diaspora with relatives and friends in India	128
67	Description of Impact of migration on family in India	129
68	Migration influencing education of children in India	131
69	Migration influencing educational attributes of children in India	131
70	Adjustments done in household work in the absence of migrant	132
71	Migrants planning to help their relatives to migrate to England/ America/ Canada	132