

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

My deepest debt of gratitude is to Prof. D.D. Mahulkar (Former Head, Department of Linguistic) who has all along guided me with insightful suggestions but never by imposing any of his ideas on me or by preplanning<sup>n</sup> the course of my work. But for him this work would have been one more dissertation copying one of the ready-made frames.

I have no words to thank my friends Prof. Dr. Birje Patil (Head, Department of English) and Prof. Dr. Suresh Joshi (Former Head, Department of Gujarati) who have incessantly tried to see that I don't get tired.

I am highly indebted to Dr. N.A. Dave (Head, Radiology Department, S.S.G. Hospital), Dr. Mrs. Sharmishtha Desai, (Radiology Department, S.S.G. Hospital), Dr. Mrs. R. Udvardia, (Head, E.N.T. Department, S.S.G. Hospital) for extending their help and guidance for my experiments and X-rays. I also thank their expert technician Mr. Suthar for accurate work.

Special thanks are due to Mr. Padhya (Librarian, Hansa Mehta Library) and his staff who have been most co-operative and kind to me. Oriental Library staff needs to be thanked particularly for letting me have some of the most valuable and rare books. I have often impinged upon Prof. Dr. Jani's (Former Head, Department of Sanskrit) precious time for some of my Sanskrit difficulties which he most readily solved. I am highly thankful to him.

My numerous informants who most readily agreed to provide the data (bug collecting! the most uninteresting sessions for them of course) and worse still to undergo the torture of being X-rayed (barium tests) were my precious props. I don't know how to thank them enough.

My special thanks are due to Miss Sarla Palkar for having gone through the manuscript. I am grateful to Mrs. H.K. Chavan, Mr. Nanavaty, Mrs. Geeta Bajpaye, Miss Prerna Reshamwalla and Dr. Jaydev Jani for helping me over the manuscript at different stages.

Father K. Mathew was extremely kind and generous in letting me use his Microfilm Reader when not a single machine was available on the campus. I am very much grateful to him.

Some of the young friends, Mr. Shailubhai Saxena, Mr. Ashok Amin and Mr. Sudhir Sahasrabudhe have been of great help and have been a very pleasant company. I thank them heartily.

I am very much indebted to Mr. Martin Chauhan who with his inexhaustible patience typed the most cumbersome thesis. Never ever he will undertake such a work where there is a painful exercise of shifting between subscripts and superscripts! I appreciate Mr. Prakash Parikh's friendly help over the xeroxed material.

My brother needs a special mention. Over the period of three long years my brother acted for me as a 'Quick Service Microfilm International'. I can never thank him adequately.

My husband did what most of the husbands would have considered beyond their share of duty. My daughters continuously have been like sources of high spirit and delight, as only they could be. Last but not <sup>the</sup> least I thank my domestic staff and particularly Mrs. Utekar.
