

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It gives me immense pleasure to present before the University of The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda my Ph.D. work on the topic entitled, "Impact of Skill Development Programmes on Livelihood of Tribal Youth". The present long journey of research work was possibly completed only due to the constant support, timely guidance, and patience advice of many people directly or indirectly concerned with my research work, I would like to express my deep and sincere gratitude to each one of them while presenting my report to the The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda. First and foremost, I would like to thank the Almighty God for keeping me healthy and spiritually protecting me in good and bad times during my research work. I am grateful to my late father Mr. Labaghan Digal and my mother Mrs. Gupudi Digal for showing me the light of the world. They are the ones who have continuously throughout my life for showing me the way of truth, sincereness and to achieve my goals. When I started my research work, it looked like a distant dream which was difficult to achieve. However, through the guidance and the encouragement I received from my guide Prof. Sunita Nambiyar which made it possible for me to attain my dream. Her advice, guidance, support from time to time helped me to run this herculean race smoothly. I wish to express my warm and sincere thanks to my guide Prof. Sunita Nambiyar for all her guidance, help and support. Her benevolent approach throughout my work was commendable. Thank you very much madam. May the Almighty God bless you with good health and a prosperous life so that your expertise may light up the lives of many youths in the field of academics. The faculty and the administrative staff of Faculty of Social Work, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda led by Dean and Head Prof. Bhavna Mehta, Former Dean and Head Prof. M. N. Parmar and Prof. Jagdish Solanki who have played an important role during my PhD work. I owe my most sincere gratitude to each and every one from the department for their support, their valuable suggestions, and encouragements throughout my PhD work. I wish to place on record the cooperation rendered to me by the management of Library, Faculty of Social Work, Centre Library of The MS University of Baroda, Shri Nathubhai and Shrimati Parvatiben Nathubhai Desai Vocational Training Centre, Vaghaldhara, Waghodia Training Centre, and Industrial Training Institutes of Tapi District. I am grateful to Mr. Paresh Salve and Dr. Parvez Abbasi for helping me to analyze the data and derive at a specific conclusion. During my research, I visited several University Libraries for my reference work. My sincere thanks to all the Librarians and the faculties of Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Veer Narmad South Gujarat University, Surat, Kalinga Institute of Social Sciences Bhubaneswar, Centre for Social Studies, Surat, National Institute of Social Work and Social Sciences, Bhubaneswar for their support and cooperation. I am indebted to the Principals, Trainers/Tutors of various ITIs who permitted me to conduct a survey and also the passed-out trainees of Tapi District for providing sufficient information and interacting with me. Last but not the least, the most precious people in my life deserve a special mention for their support, encouragement, and prayers - my brother and sister, family members for supporting me to do research work and bearing all my tempers during my research work. They are the ones who stood beside me in good and bad times during the course of my research work. Without their understanding and encouragement, it would have been impossible for me to complete my research work. Thank You One and all. God Bless each one of us----- Udit Digal
