First and foremost, prayers, praises, and thanks to God, almighty for showers of blessing throughout the research journey to complete the research successfully.

I would like to extend a deep and sincere gratitude to my guide Dr. Sujata Srivastava, Professor, Department of Education (CASE), Faculty of Education & Psychology, The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Vadodara, Gujarat, India for the opportunity to conduct research and provide guidance throughout this research. Her vision, dynamism, and expertise in the field have made my herculean task of research an inspirational and motivational expedition. Being a thoughtful Guide, she introduced me to the recent breakthrough in the research domain and cultured the research work with her critical reviews, comments, and suggestions through insightful discussions. It was a great privilege and honor to work under the guidance of such a brilliant mentor.

I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to Prof. Ashutosh Biswal I/C Dean, Faculty of Education and Psychology, Head of the Department of Education (CASE) for providing professional support and guidance which taught me a great deal of learning in research.

I would also express special thanks to all the experts and panelists for their eminent contribution to the research through the validation of the research tools.

I would also like to thank in general all the teaching and non-teaching staff of the department for their timely support during the study.

My profound gratitude goes to Mr. Pravin Thakare, Principal, Anudanit Madhyamic va Ucchamadhyamic (Kala va Vidnyan) Ka. Maha. Adivasi Ashramshala Indave, Tal. Sakri, Dist. Dhule, Maharashtra and Mr. Vedu A. Patil, Principal, Madhyamic va Ucchamadhyamic Ashramshala Revadi, Tal. Shindakheda Dist. Dhule, Maharashtra. I must wholeheartedly thank all those Ashram school students for being participants in my study and helping to achieve my research goal.

I run short of words to express my gratitude to my friends, and my family members, who were the backbone for my accomplishment. A great thank you to my daughter Anisha and my husband Anil for their immense encouragement, enormous support, and incredible love.
