

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

During the period of this research work, I have learned and gained a lot from many teachers, friends as well as my family members. I really appreciate their support and will always remain indebted to them. It was a long journey where I learned the importance of people who loved and supported me through out.

First of all I would like to thank my research supervisor and guide Prof. A.S. Rao for accepting me as his research student and for his invaluable guidance and support towards completing my work. His continuous support and guidance and several inputs have made me gain insight and complete the thesis. His knowledge of analysis and feedbacks were very enriching and helped me improve not only my research work but also the way I look academics.

I would like to thank the Department of Economics for giving me support and motivating me to pursue PhD. The teaching staff who have been my teachers at post graduation have also supported me during my PhD and course work. During my research, I was given encouragement to pursue my research work with all the facilities that the department could provide.

I express my gratitude to Dr T.R. Bishnoi, the then teaching staff of Department of Economics who helped me through in finding the probable topics that I could pursue for my research work. It really helped me get over the confusion of topic selection.

I would also like to thank Prof. S.M. Joshi, Dr. A. Mehta and Dr. A. Kumra for their support and guidance. They have all been very helpful in a joyful manner and have given me the strength to accomplish what I set out to achieve.

The teaching staffs of Institute for Studies in Industrial Development (ISID), New Delhi and V.V. Giri National Labour Institute, Noida have provided me the guidance for the field survey and documentation through the media and making a compact and concise questionnaire. It benefited me a lot in collecting of primary data since my research work is related to labour.

Moral support was very much needed through this phase and my family – Baba,, Mama and my dearest Abe have given me more than I ever deserve. I will always be indebted to them. I would also like to thank my research colleagues Dr.Pawan Thakur, Kankan Sharma, Parth Prajapati and my senior who is like my elder sister Dr. Sofia Samurailatpam. I m also grateful to Dr. Parag Shukla from Commerce faculty, for his help and guidance during the process of submission. Many thanks to my friends Chandrakant Vankar, Srikant Thounaojam, Pratap Pukhrambam, Ravi Khairnar, Calvin John Parmar and Nirav Joshi for their love and support. I am grateful for having them as my loved ones.

Lastly I would like to thank God for blessing me to reach this phase of life and hoping to go on more and succeed in what I have learned through the years.

Place: Vadodara

Rabichandra Singh Elangbam

Date: 11th September, 2018