

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to express my sense of gratitude to Professor Prafulla C. Kar of the Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda for his help, guidance and encouragement during the course of my research. Many persons in the Department of English of M. S. University of Baroda have helped and encouraged me during my study. I am particularly thankful to Professor J. Birje-Patil, Professor R. N. Mehta, Professor C. K. Seshadri, Professor O. P. Joneja, Mr. H. A. Ismail, Mr. U. M. Nanavati and Dr. M. F. Salat. I am also indebted to Dr. Syed Asim Ali of Aligarh Muslim University, Dr. Munthir Mohammed Habib of Al-Mustansiriyah University, Baghdad for providing me the material I needed and encouraging me at the earlier stage of my research.

My friend Abdul Latif A. Shalabi (Abu Bashar) supported me at the crucial stage of my research. I am immensely grateful to him. Without his timely help I could not have launched myself into this programme.

My special thanks are to my student in Basrah, Hussein Dakhil Ajeel who provided me some valuable articles which I needed for my work.

I am grateful to Mr. C. N. Kachhia of Smt Hansa Mehta Library of the M. S. University of Baroda and other staff members of the Library for their help and co-operation.

I am also thankful to the Director and the Staff of the Indian Council for Cultural Relations, New Delhi for their support and financial assistance.

I am also deeply obliged to the staff of the Indian Embassy, Baghdad for giving me the opportunity to come to India on a scholarship to pursue my studies.

I would like to express my sincerest thanks to Mrs. Mokshada Kar, Smarajit Triambak and my friend M. Iqbal Torabali for their moral support and good will.

I thank Miss Hemlata Patel and Seema Parekh, the computer operators who did the job in a short time and to Mr. Nikitin R. Contractor, the owner of the computer Institute for his co-operation. I am also thankful to Mr. K. B. Patel for typing the draft.

Finally, I would like to close this with a note of appreciation to my wife Kawakib Yehia Samara'ee and my daughter Ahood and my two sons, Mohammed and Amar for accompanying me to India and enduring my absence at a time when my presence was most needed at home.
