

Acknowledgement

At the outset I thank my guiding teacher Prof. Dr. Jaydev Jani whose able and sincere guidance has given the shape to the present thesis.

The texts of R̥gveda Samhitā with Sāyaṇabhāṣya published by Vadik Samshodhan Mandala, Pune is taken as the source book of the present research.

Dr. Sarasvati Bali's book Ṛaspati in Vedas and Puranas has also come to my use partially, though it seems that her research is based more on the translations than on the original texts (which the candidate of the present research has taken fully).

I am thankful to the authority of Smt. Hansa Mehta Library, late Prof. Dr. M. L. Wadekar (Offg. Director of the Oriental Institute, MSU), Prof. Dr. Jani (whose rich library was of my immense availability) and Dr. Gargi Pandit, for providing ample facility to collect accessory data from their library.
