

LIST OF TABLES

Sr./Table No.	Details	Page No.
Table: 1 (1.3)	Table showing information about the village, Taluka and District of the respondent	313
Table:2 (1.14)	Table showing type of house of the respondents	315
Table: 3 (1.15)	Table showing number of houses with a separate kitchen	316
Table: 4 (1.16)	Table showing arrangement of water supply in the houses of the respondents	316
Table: 5 (1.17)	Table showing number of houses of the respondents with a bath room	317
Table: 6 (1.18)	Table showing the number of houses of the respondents with a toilet	317
Table: 7 (3.5)	Table showing furniture possessed by the respondents' families	319
Table: 8 (7.12)	Table showing regular (routine) food of the respondents	324-325
Table: 9 (7.16)	Table showing the dresses (clothes) of men and women respondents	329
Table:10 (1.10)	Table showing traditional-family profession of the respondents	335
Table:11 (1.11)	Table showing profession of the head of family	335
Table:12(2.8.1:2)	Table showing main and subordinate profession of the respondents and their family members	336
Table: 13 (3.1.1)	Table showing Agricultural land of the respondents	337
Table: 14 (3.1.2)	Table showing Land of the respondents under irrigation	338
Table: 15 (3.1.3)	Table showing non-irrigated land of the respondents	339
Table: 16 (3.1.4)	Table showing uncultivated land of the respondents	339-340
Table: 17 (3.1.5)	Table showing land of the respondents given on partnership basis	340
Table: 18 (3.1.6)	Table showing total land held by the respondents	340-341
Table: 19 (3.22)	Table showing type of land held by the respondents	341
Table: 20 (3.23)	Table showing provision of irrigation in the land of the	342

	respondents
Table: 21 (3.24)	Table showing respondents doing farming scientifically	349
Table: 22 (93.3)	Table showing agricultural production of the respondents' families	350
Table: 23 (93.2)	Table showing agricultural tools of the respondents	351
Table: 24 (3.25)	Table giving information about the respondents using fertilizers	353
Table: 25 (3.4)	Table showing the number of cattle possessed by the respondents' families	354
Table:26 (3.17)	Table showing insurance of their cattle	354-355
Table:27 (3.19)	Table showing the arrangement of Dairy for selling milk	355
Table:28 (3.19.1)	Table showing type of dairy for the sale of milk	355
Table: 29 (3.20)	Table showing troubles due to Natural calamities for the respondents:	360-361
Table: 30 (3.21)	Table showing government help in natural calamities	361
Table:31 (3.21.1)	Table showing types of help from the government to the respondents	361-362
Table: 32 (2.9)	Table showing annual income of the respondents and their family members	365-366
Table:33 (3.6)	Table showing present monthly and annual income of the respondents' families	366-367
Table: 34 (3.7)	Table showing type of income	367
Table: 35 (3.8)	Table showing the expenditure incurred in the previous year by the families of the respondents	368
Table: 36 (3.18)	Table showing respondents' income from milk and milk products	369
Table: 37 (3.9)	Table showing respondents' requirement for loan	370
Table: 38 (3.10)	Table showing the number of respondents as debtors	370
Table:39 (3.10.1)	Table showing the total amount of debt of the respondents' families	371
Table:40(3.11)	Table showing where the respondents have taken loans from	372
Table: 41 (3.12)	Table showing reasons for respondents' debt/loans	372-373

Table: 42 (3.13)	Table showing savings of the families of the respondents from their income	373-374
Table: 43 (3.13.1)	Table showing reasons for making provision for savings from their income	374
Table: 44 (3.14)	Table showing the safest method of saving according to the respondents	375
Table: 45 (3.15)	Table showing respondents' safety/unsafety in their present profession	375
Table: 46 (7.11)	Table showing the respondents' bank accounts	376
Table: 47 (7.11.1)	Table showing names of banks where the respondents hold accounts	376-377
Table: 48 (3.16)	Table showing the respondents' attitude towards their jobs	378
Table: 49 (1.4)	Table showing caste of the respondents	391-392
Table: 50 (1.5)	Table showing the sub-caste of the respondents	392-393
Table: 51 (1.6)	Table showing the Gotra (Clan) of the respondents	394
Table: 52(4.26)	Table showing three major problems of the family, community and village	396
Table: 53 (1.13)	Table showing type of the family of respondents	407-408
Table: 54 (4.1)	Table showing type of respondents' families	408
Table: 55(4.29)	Table showing the respondents' problem due to joint family system	408
Table: 56 (4.29.1)	Table showing reasons for the problems due to joint family system	409
Table: 57 (4.30)	Table showing problems faced by the respondents living in nuclear families	410
Table: 58(4.30.1)	Table showing reasons for the problems faced by respondents living in nuclear families	410-411
Table: 59 (1.12)	Table showing family members of the respondents	412
Table: 60 (2.3)	Table showing relation of the respondents with the head of family	413
Table: 61 (2.4)	Table showing sex/gender of the family members of the respondents	413-414
Table: 62 (2.5)	Table showing age of the family members of the	414

	respondents
Table: 63 (4.19)	Table showing the respondents' opinion about women getting education and a job	436
Table: 64 (4.18)	Table showing the respondents' opinion about freedom of women	437
Table: 65 (4.20)	Table showing the respondents' opinion about tradition of women covering their faces	437-438
Table: 66 (1.8)	Marital Status of the respondents	446
Table: 67(2.7.1:2)	Table showing marital status of the respondents and their family members	446
Table: 68 (2.7.4)	Table showing distance of the wedding place of the respondents and their Family members	447-448
Table: 69(4.21)	Table showing the respondents' opinion about mass community marriages	448
Table: 70 (4.22)	Table showing good traditions/customs of the Rajput community	449
Table: 71 (4.23)	Table showing the bad traditions or customs in the Rajput community	450
Table: 72 (4.24)	Table showing the respondents opinion about the changes in the customs and tradition	450-451
Table: 73 (4.24.1)	Table showing changes in the social customs	451-452
Table: 74 (4.25)	Table showing good and bad qualities of Rajput community	452-453
Table: 75 (2.7.3)	Table showing age of marriage of the respondents and their family members	455-456
Table:76(4.3)	Table showing age of marriage in the community of the respondents	456
Table:77(4.16)	Table showing the respondents' opinion about child marriages	457
Table: 78 (4.4)	Table showing choice of castes in marriages	458-459
Table: 79 (4.5)	Table showing the respondents' choice of area for marriage	459
Table: 80 (4.6)	Table showing respondents' tendency to inter-caste	459-460

	marriage of their children
Table: 81 (4.7)	Table showing respondents' opinion about taking consent of children in their choice of match	460
Table: 82 (4.9)	Table showing respondents' expenditure on marriages	460-461
Table: 83 (4.12)	Table showing the respondents' opinion about the custom of divorce	467
Table: 84 (4.13)	Table showing circumstances/reasons for giving divorce	468
Table: 85 (4.14)	Table showing method of giving/taking divorce	469
Table: 86 (4.15)	Table showing expenditure in divorce	470
Table: 87 (4.17)	Table showing the respondents' opinion about widow remarriage	473
Table: 88 (4.10)	Table showing give and take of dowry	474
Table: 89 (4.10.1)	Table showing the respondents' acceptance of dowry system	474-475
Table: 90 (4.10.2)	Table showing the reasons given by respondents for not accepting dowry	475-476
Table: 91 (4.11)	Table showing whether the respondents believe in giving dowry	476-477
Table: 92 (4.11.1)	Table showing the type/form of dowry	477
Table: 93 (4.35)	Table showing the place of child delivery as mentioned by the respondents	480
Table: 94 (4.36)	Table showing the information given by respondents about the method of child delivery	480-481
Table: 95 (4.2)	Table showing the age of engagement in the community of the respondents	485
Table: 96 (4.8)	Table showing different factors taken into account for fixing marriage	486
Table: 97 (4.33)	Table showing the respondents' opinion about the public mourning (Kaan or Kharkharo)	507
Table: 98 (5.6)	Table showing the respondents' opinion about the ritual of Barmu (ritual on death)	508
Table: 99 (5.7)	Table showing expenditure in the ritual of Barmu/Termu (ritual on death)	509

Table: 100(4.31)	Table showing the respondents' tendency towards rituals on death	513
Table: 101 (4.32)	Table showing the respondents' opinion about pretbhojan (community feast on death)	513-514
Table:102(4.32.1)	Table showing reasons for believing in Pretbhojan	514
Table: 103 (1.7)	Table showing the details of the Religion of the respondents	527
Table: 104 (5.8)	Table showing details of the religious sect in which they believe and which they have joined	527-528
Table: 105 (5.10)	Table showing details of the activities done by the respondents in the religious sects	528-529
Table: 106 (5.4)	Table showing the details of sacrifice offered to gods and goddesses	531
Table: 107 (5.5)	Table showing the respondents' opinion about taking an ill person to a Doctor or a Bhuva (an exorcist)	532
Table: 108 (5.1)	Table showing the information given by respondents about their family gods/goddesses	534
Table: 109 (5.20)	Table showing the religious symbol of the respondents	536-537
Table: 110 (5.3)	Table showing the totems that the respondents worship	537
Table: 111 (5.14)	Table showing the respondents' activities before beginning their day	546
Table: 112 (5.15)	Table showing the respondents' priority to activities in time of difficulties	546-547
Table: 113 (5.12)	Table showing the respondents' opinion about practice of 'using grains' to know cause of illness	556
Table:114(5.12.1)	Table showing the reasons of using the tactic of 'seeing grains' to know cause of illness	556-557
Table: 115 (5.13)	Table showing the occasions on which a Bhuva is invited	557
Table:116(5.13.1)	Table showing the reasons of going to a Bhuva to know cause of illness	558
Table: 117 (5.9)	Table showing details of the respondents' opinion about a Guru (religious mentor)	562
Table: 118 (5.9.1)	Table showing details of the religious sect in which they	562-563

	believe
Table: 119 (7.13)	Table showing use of non-vegetarian food of the respondents	565
Table: 120 (7.3)	Table showing the respondents' opinion about untouchability	571
Table: 121 (7.3.1)	Table showing the respondents' reasons for the practice of untouchability	571-572
Table: 122 (7.4)	Table showing the respondents' opinion about their relations with other castes	572
Table: 123 (7.17)	Table showing population of the Rajput in the villages of respondents	630
Table: 124 (7.18)	Table showing reasons why they call themselves Rajput	631
Table: 125 (7.19)	Table showing the respondents' opinion about the status of their community	632
Table:126(7.19.1)	Table showing factors that cause change in the identity of the Rajput	632
Table: 127 (7.20)	Table showing fields in which change in the identity of the Rajput is visible	633
Table: 128 (7.21)	Table showing the respondents' opinion about change in the Rajput identity	633
Table:129(7.21.1)	Table showing reasons for preserving in the original culture of Rajput culture	634-635
Table:130(7.21.2)	Table showing reasons for change in the original culture of Rajput culture	636-637
Table: 131 (1.9)	Table showing education of the respondents	655
Table: 132 (2.6.1)	Table showing present study of the family members of respondents	656
Table: 133 (2.6.2)	Table showing education (completed) of the family members of respondents	657
Table: 134 (2.6.3)	Table showing reasons for leaving study by the family members	658
Table: 135 (6.1)	Table showing the respondents' priority to give their children desired education	659

Table: 136 (6.2)	Table showing the usefulness of education according to respondents in the present time	660
Table: 137 (6.3)	Table showing encouragement given by the respondents for giving college education to girls	661
Table: 138 (6.3.1)	Table showing the reasons given by the respondents for giving education to girls	661-662
Table: 139 (6.4)	Table showing the respondents' opinion about giving education to girls	662
Table: 140 (6.5)	Table showing information about illiterate members of the respondents' family	662-663
Table: 141 (6.6)	Table showing the children going to schools or colleges	663
Table: 142 (7.1)	Table showing vaccination given to children of the respondent families	666
Table: 143 (7.2)	Table showing the respondent families using traditional methods of treatment	667
Table: 144 (7.14)	Table showing the respondents' habit of chewing Pan-Masala (Mouth fresheners)	667-668
Table: 145 (7.15)	Table showing the respondents' habit of taking alcohol	668
Table: 146(7.15.1)	Table showing the respondents' tendency to take alcohol regularly or occasionally	668-669
Table: 147(4.27)	Table showing the respondents opinion about advantages and disadvantages of urbanization	677-678
Table: 148 (4 28)	Table showing the respondents' opinion about family planning	678
Table: 149(4.28.1)	Table showing reasons for their opinion about family planning	679
Table: 150 (5.11)	Table showing changes in the community due to the religious sects	680-681
Table: 151 (7.5)	Table showing the respondents habit of reading newspapers	686
Table: 152 (7.5.1)	Table showing the respondents' choice of reading newspapers	686-687
Table: 153 (7.7)	Table showing the respondents' tendency to listen to radio	688

Table: 154 (7.7.1)	Table showing the respondents' Preference of Listening to Programs on radio	688-689
Table: 155 (7.6)	Table showing the respondents' tendency to watch films	689-690
Table: 156 (7.6.1)	Table showing the respondents' choice of films	690
Table: 157 (4.34)	Table showing the respondents' activities of getting entertainment	691
Table: 158 (7.8)	Table showing the respondents' tendency to listen to radio	692
Table: 159 (7.8.1)	Table showing the respondents' choice of TV channels and programs	692-693
Table: 160 (7.10)	Table showing the respondents' familiarity with the Officers of their area	695
Table: 161 (7.9)	Table showing the respondents' visit to the Capital of the country	696-697