

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

"My heart is inditing a good matter:
I speak of the things which I have made touching the king: my tongue is the pen of a ready writer."

-Psalm 45:1. HOLY BIBLE

The investigator finds her heart reflected in the above lines composed by the immortal King David, one of the greatest King-Poets.

I wish to place on record my deep sense of gratitude and appreciation to my guide Dr. (Smt) N.A. Shelat, Reader, Centre of Advanced Study in Education, M.S. University of Baroda, who was the real source of strength and inspiration. With her profound scholarship, rich experience and creative imagination of the high order, she was always ready with the right suggestion at the right time, propelling this piece of investigation to its goal. But for her able and efficient guidance at every stage, notwithstanding her pressing schedule of activities, I could not have completed this work successfully.

I am greatly indebted to Prof. D.B.Desai, the former Head and Dean and Dr. M.S. Yadav, the present Head, Department of Education and Psychology, M.S.University of Baroda, for providing me with the right research milieu, realistic advice and valuable suggestions from time to time.

I wish to express my gratitude to Rev.Mother. Anna Maria and Rev.Sr. Pauline Joseph, former and present Principal & Correspondents respectively, St.Joseph's College of Education, Guntur, Andhra Pradesh, for deputing me as a Teacher-Fellow at the Centre of Advanced Study in Education, for a year facilitating this research. I am grateful to them for their inspiration and encouragement althrough.

I am grateful to Rev. Dr. K. Nathaniel, President, A.E.L. Church, Guntur, for his blessings and encouragement.

I wish to specially thank the various creative-writers who had graciously and promptly responded with the 'Opinionnaires'.

I owe much to all the Principals and Professors of English of various Colleges of Education in India, for their timely help and kind cooperation extended to me during the data-collection. I also thank all those student-teachers of these institutions who willingly and enthusiastically cooperated with me.

My special thanks are due to Prof. M.J.V. Gurunadham who favoured me in the data-collection from Sokota, Nigeria.

I wish to express my special thanks to Miss. Sita, the former Vice-Principal and Miss. Jayasree, Lecturer, both of St. Joseph's College of Education, Guntur, for extending their helping hand in the statistical analysis of the data.

I would like to thank Mrs. S. Padhye, Librarian of CASE Library, who expertly and amiably lead me to sources of information.

I am especially grateful to my husband and children for their encouragement and active cooperation from start to finish.

I would like to thank Mr. K. Surya Dev and Mr. V.V. Koteswara Rao of K.K. Tronics, Guntur for their meticulous care in typing and the get-up.

Finally, I want to express my sincere thanks to the very many friends and acquaintances who helped me in various capacities in the course of this research.

August 1987

Baroda

K. PRABHAVATHAMMA